Not up the usual Hilton standard. Huge hotel (> 1'000 rooms), anonymous service, breakfast buffet looks like a hospital canteen and you have to pay extra for Internet access

Location is excellent for the tube. Room was large for London & clean but sink appeared to be a little blocked. Staff were good. Breakfast was excellent - probably the best I compared to similar hotels. Recommended

Very Central. Managed to get free breakfast as we had a Hilton Honours Card Gold. Super Delux Rooms were brilliant for the 4 of us and very clean and modern. Even the c helped to find a missing piece of jewellery and wrote a note to explain(definitely way beyond the call of duty!!) . The female staff in the breakfast room were absolutely fantastic and re friendly and helpful. The breakfast selection was absolutely fantastic keeping us going for the rest of the day ! Internet was very good and fast. All in all, a brilliant stay at this wonderful Thanks to all the kind staff !

Just a short walk from Oxford Street, but for the more lazy the tube station it just across the road. A hotel which has clearly been built in stages, which doesn't really effect yo like ourselves were looking to use the swimming pool and had to cross from one tower in the building to another. The rooms are lovely and well maintained and has everything you woul expect in a modern day hotel. I can't comment on the food because we never ate here. I was lucky enough to book this as part of a deal, I wouldn't have liked to have paid the full price.

friendly staff, clean room,car park, good breakfast

07/07/2011 12:00:00 AM

Friendliness of the reception and restaurant staff. The room was large and comfortably furnished

06/07/2011 12:00:00 AM

Helpful and friendly staff and First Class breakfast

05/07/2011 12:00:00 AM

The staff were nice, the room clean and relatively spacious.

It was impossible to flush the toilet.

04/07/2011 12:00:00 AM

Location Location Location. And very friendly staff.

No double room available despite request in advance, disappointing and expensive breakfast.

04/07/2011 12:00:00 AM

Friendly staffs and good services.

04/07/2011 12:00:00 AM

Location.

This is not the first time I stay at this hotel. This hotel relies mainly on its location. Apart from that, it has really little to offer. The rooms haven't been updated for many years it seems. The carpet in my room was heavily stained. There is a board provided but no ironer. There is a kettle but the yellowish turned colour of a tired former white appliance is scary. The bathroom is often poorly maintained in this hotel. I couldn't have really hot water in the shower. The bottom of the shower curtain had green-orange moisture. There are liquid soap dispensers in the bathroom. It is not the first time I visit this hotel and that I find the dispensers empty or simply broken. All we are provided with are two small pieces of cheap soap. This is not really comfortable to use. This hotel needs to upgrade its rooms and its standards. So far the prices don't match the low standards of this hotel. All this hotel has to offer is its location.

03/07/2011 12:00:00 AM

The friendliness of all the staff.

02/07/2011 12:00:00 AM

Was a nice large room and comfortable, dated furniture and decoration but felt at home there. Breakfast was very nice.

Parking was an issue, it does not state in the advertisement that there is not a car park but in fact cars are just left in an alley way behind the hotel and you have to leave keys so the car can be moved by someone else as required. Needless to say we parked on another car park over the road and kept our own keys.

27/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

Close to Hyde Park and Killers & Bon Jovi, Awesome !

Hotel could do with a spruce up but it has a charm about it and the breakfast room staff were excellent !

27/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

The English Breakfasts & the Cortesy & Politeness of the Reception Staff.

25/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

This is a family run hotel, within easy walking distance of 3 tube stations.it offers very good value, with freshly cooked breakfast available.Room was very good size, as was en suite bathroom.Helpful and friendly staff. Most other guests seem to be independent travellers, and family groups.

Breakfast time seems to be designed for those on holiday, rather than those on business!But it has always been like this....Still very good value even if you miss out on breakfast!

25/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

Welcoming staff and location

Decor dated

24/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

the size of the roomThe location outdated furniture. Needs redesign. Outdated bathroom. Do not suitable for business trips.

19/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

Breakfast, atmosphere, stuff

16/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

Close to transport. Excellent size of rooms.

Breakfast was the usual british stodge- limp cold toast, and sausage which tasted like pure fat. For the price of London accomodation one expects more, especially after being spoilt on the continent with buffet breakfasts and great accomodation at half the cost .

29/05/2011 12:00:00 AM

Friendly staff

Dated interior but clean. Slightly annoying that breakfast was included in the price but was only served from 8 to 10 am, may work for tourists.

27/05/2011 12:00:00 AM

The staff were really, really friendly. I had a very large twin room with a balcony which was just lovely.

The hotel has quite tired decor - but a bit of money spent on doing it up would be a good idea. However, from a business perspective, breakfast doesn't start until 8, which is very late!

19/05/2011 12:00:00 AM

The location is superb - shopping, museums, parks, good restaurants, 3 underground stations etc etc. Also, good to have parking.Staff were welcoming and extremely helpful with locating places and making suggestions for eating locally. Chinese restaurants down Queensway really super.

Lack of free WIFI and the decor in our room was quite tired.

19/05/2011 12:00:00 AM

Location although paperwork did say it was near three tube stations but the failed to mention which ones.

Very dated and tired decoration and fittings. Bathroom particularly bad. No hot water available when arrived at 4.00pm although was available later. At the price would have expected far better.

17/05/2011 12:00:00 AM

Location.

1/ The bathroom: there are soap dispensers but both of them were empty. I had to ask reception to re-fill them. Later on they brought hard hand soap but didn't re-fill the dispensers with liquid soap. I had to ask reception a second time for proper liquid soap and they said the dispensers were faulty. So they brought some spare bottles of liquid soaps. I paid £130 for one night and expects a bathroom with liquid soap (otherwise the hotel should say on the website: bring your-liquid soap!). 2/ Sound proofing is not excellent. You wake up whenever the people in the room upstairs wakes up...

15/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

The staff at the hotel were cheerful and helpful to a member. The location was ideal for our purposes and seemed very safe, convenient and interesting.
The breakfast was too limited and lacked a modern coffee experience.

27/02/2011 12:00:00 AM

Staff was willing to help with our requests in the restaurant and at the front desk. Close to underground stations and small restaurants and shops (2-3 blocks). Temperature in room is adjustable.
Room furniture is old and weathered, carpet heavily stained but clean. Water pressure weak.

04/01/2011 12:00:00 AM

The breakfast was excellent and although there were items listed that were not actually available the overall experience was good
There were soap dispensers on the wall in the bathroom but no soap in them.

14/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

The location was excellent, as well as the size of the rooms. Also loved the full english breakfast included in the price, plus, as a smoker being on the 5th floor, a smoking area on the balcony is provided, save going down to the ground floor.
Bed was slightly hard, but that is a personal preference of mine for the bed to be soft.

13/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

Helpful reception staff. Convenient location.

Breakfast staff were rude and off-hand when "stressed" due to volume of customers. We have travelled widely and understand that southern Europeans (as these young ladies were) tend to be this way, however this is still unacceptable in a London hotel.

11/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

Pleasant stay, hotel staff very friendly.

01/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

we only stayed overnight on a shopping trip but everyone was very welcoming & helpful

30/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

helpfull staff,excellent breakfast.
traffic noise

27/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

Value and location

04/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

Dirty rooms, trashy equipment

02/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

We thoroughly enjoyed our stay, the hotel is comfortable and very well positioned between two tube stations. It is opposite Hyde Park and in a great location. Breakfast staff were lovely and very accommodating, they even remembered our children like hot chocolate and had a big pot of it waiting on the table for us on the third morning. We would recommend this hotel for larger families - we stayed in the room for 5 people: 5 single beds in a very spacious room. It looks as if an adjoining room can be booked with this room as there seems to be an internal door between the two (this is only speculation!). We will be going back.

Some of the decor is perhaps a little tired, though this did not bother us in the slightest.

08/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

We had a very nice large room looking at trees.

29/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

The cleanliness in our room wasn't good, there was nowhere to put the shower head when showering, my husband had to stand outside the bath so i could wash properly, the food wasn't very nice at all, there was no bar.

29/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

the location of the hotel is great, 3 metro stations within 5 minutes walk, bus stop is right near the hotel. many grocery stores, restaurants and cafes around. Hyde park is really close, and it takes around 20 minutes to get to the very cent london by bus. Breakfast is all right - cereal, toasts, coffee, juices. Rooms are fine - of average cleanliness, and quite comfortable.

Poor facilities - heating system, wifi and even toilet didn't work. After 2 days of complaints we were moved to another room where everything -except wifi - worked. I would advice to check the room before settling.

25/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

the hotel overall is fine and the services in addition to the breakfast the style and the decoration is old

16/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

Very friendly and we enjoyed our stay very much indeed - would return.

16/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

Was just round the corner from Hyde Park

The room did not look as if it was not very clean and the chef was shouting at his staff.

18/08/2010 12:00:00 AM

Location. Room was rather quiet at night. Bathroom was rather clean. Rather cheap. Good value for money.

Room crowded with too much furniture (a big desk, a table, armchairs). Bad smell in the room (smell of humidity and old curtains and furniture).

18/08/2010 12:00:00 AM

Whoever said this was the best breakfast they ever had must have been drunk! Breakfast was average (only one sausage!! haha). All in all the hotel was pleasant, the staff were nice and helpful. We paid £130 which seems a bit high, as is the hilton, but it was in a great location and cant really complain!

31/07/2010 12:00:00 AM

The staff were excellent - breakfast wonderful - room great - beds comfortable - excellent bus services outside hotel - restaurants etc nearby - green leafy area

27/07/2010 12:00:00 AM

The large room and bathroom. The hotel's close proximity to two underground stations which made for easy access to other areas of the city.

When I checked out at 0615, the front desk employee said he was unable to print my bill that early in the morning and would email it. Three weeks have gone by and I have yet to receive a copy of the bill. I have sent three email inquiries requesting a copy of the bill and have not received a response from the hotel. Insist on a copy of the bill before you leave the hotel.

26/07/2010 12:00:00 AM

Hotel was very convenient and staff very helpful. Breakfast good. Rooms very spacious and airy.

20/07/2010 12:00:00 AM

Good welcome from Shirley. The outer appearance of the hotel is very pleasant. Breakfast was plentiful and appealing.
I will, as you suggest, write a letter outlining the complaints.

20/07/2010 12:00:00 AM

Friendly staff who are there to help at any time of the day.
There is cleaning going on in the corridors almost all the time. Guests bump in to cleaning gear in these corridors.

17/07/2010 12:00:00 AM friendly staff. made most welcome even though arriving late. allocated room a rear with balcony no noise. excellent full english breakfast

07/07/2011 12:00:00 AM

Situation géographique tout à fait adaptée pour une visite de Londres

Une maintenance des équipements d'une des chambres occupées insuffisante. Exemples : tête d'un robinet de la baignoire se désolidarisant du corps; prise de rasage de la salle de bains nécessitant une action manuelle particulière de mainti la prise du rasoir pour avoir une continuité électrique ; une plaque de propreté de la porte de la salle de bains sommairement remise en place ; un éclairage d'un tableau de la chambre pendant au bout de son fil électrique d'alimentation. C'e: dommage; il aurait suffi de peu de choses pour que ce soit tout à fait correct.

04/07/2011 12:00:00 AM

Viel zu teuer für qualität

29/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

Preis-/Leistung stimmt, für 3-4 Tage Sightsseeing und Shoppingtour perfekt, da unmittelbar an U-Bahnstation gelegen.

12/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

La situation

Is ont débité ma carte à la réservation.

08/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

We hadden twee charmante en ruime kamers naast elkaar (een 2 persoons en een 3 persoons). Met name de kamer voor onze 3 kinderen was buitengewoon ruim!
Omdat het zulk mooi weer was in Londen, zou het nog aangenamer kunnen zijn als er 1 of meer bankjes buiten in de voortuin zouden staan!

06/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

La posizione dell'hotel, le dimensioni e le caratteristiche "old english" della camera doppia de luxe, la tranquillità, la colazione full english, la gentilezza dello staff, lo scaldasalviette in bagno, il mobile a muro.
Da perfezionare la manutenzione dei sanitari del bagno e la pulizia (anche se c'era l'igiene fondamentale), la tenda della vasca/doccia sottodimensionata, assenza di bidet (naturalmente la regola in uk).

01/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

Necesita cambio mobiliario

30/05/2011 12:00:00 AM

Det bästa med hotellet var läget. Rimligt pris för vad man fick. Helt ok frukost Saknade dusch och standarden var ganska låg. Rummet var slitet men rent.

29/05/2011 12:00:00 AM

Simpel maar schoon hotel. Eten is typisch Engels verwacht er niet teveel van. Koffie is prima. Kamers zijn schoon met groot plasmascherm. Lift duurt lang. Locatie perfect
Lift, verouderde ustraling, beperkte keuze bij ontbijt

02/05/2011 12:00:00 AM

l'unico appunto è sulla colazione. del tutto assente qualsiasi tipo di dolce: croissant, torte ed altro. dovrebbero offrire qualcosa di diverso dalla colazione britannica. vivono soprattutto di turismo straniero.

21/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

Ich hatte ein Zimmer im obersten Stock, mit Lage zum Hof. Ich war damit sehr zufrieden. Keine Lärmbelästigung von der Straße. In der Früh ist mir allerdings aufgefallen, dass die Liftgeräusche im Zimmer zu hören sind. Das Zimmer war für London und diese Lage überraschend groß. Das Frühstück war britisch und gut.

20/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

L'hotel è un pò caro, ma la posizione è eccellente e fino a notte tarda è sempre pieno di gente, ristoranti e club privati aperti! Le stanze sono ampie e comode!
Il design è un pò classico e vecchiotto. è un pò troppo caro per il la classe di hotel che corrisponde più che altro ad un ottimo 3 stelle italiano. Niente di grave, solo un pò caro!

04/01/2011 12:00:00 AM

la tranquilidad del hotel, la ausencia de ruidos y la limpieza. el desayuno excelente.

15/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

Hotel pequeno y bien cuidado buena calefacción bien situado cerca del barrio de Queensway donde hay todo lo necesario para no tener que desplazarse lejos Bien comunicado por metro y bus al centro

08/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

Freundliches, hilfsbereites Personal. Gute Lage mit sehr guter Anbindung an oeffentliche Verkehrsmittel.

01/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

Buona posizione per visitare la città a piedi, ben servito anche dalla metro, silenzioso e sicuro. La stanza era spaziosa e pulita.

29/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

Gedighet hotell med bra personal både vid frukosten och i övrigt. Sköna sängar, välstädade rum samt låg ljudnivå trots stor gata utanför.

16/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

Een goede plek vlak bij de Central Line en het Metro station, tegenover Hyde park, Goede prijs -kwaliteit verhouding, vriendelijk personeel, kortom een hotel om te onthouden,

14/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

Uitzicht op paleis Kensington en heerlijk ontbijt
Badkamer vies niet goed schoon en koffiezetapparaat zelf was erg vies, had geen behoefte om hier een kop koffie mee te zetten, gewoon vervangen

10/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

El personal es fantástico, nos ayudó mucho y la ubicación genial a un paso de la parada de metro notting hill, la habitación normalita, para ducharte y dormir.
El desayuno es poco variado me hubiera gustado que tuvieran fruta y algo de pastelería.

30/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

Chambre famille jusqu'à 5 personnes (dont 3 enfants)

Famaque à la fin sur le prix (total) à payer (malgré l'acompte versé via booking.com)

28/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

Era limpio. Muy cerca de metro.

Mobiliario muy viejo, cama incomoda. Desayuno horrible, te dan solo un plato para elegir. Caffé horrible. Personal no es amable. No tienen una habitación para guardar equipage, se queda en el patio sin vigilancia.

24/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

Todo. he visitado en londres varias veces y al fin he encontrado un hotel en condiciones: limpio, habitaciones grandes, desayuno estupendo, todo el personal agradabilísimo, calidad precio muy bien. metro a 2 minutos andando, el autobus I deja en la puerta (94), no está en el centro pero comodísimo para moverse y conocer londres.

21/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

Hospitalidade. Conforto. Localização. Pequeno-almoço. Serviço.

19/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

De kamer als geheel als comfortabel ervaren, met zitje,tv en gelegenheid om zelf koffie of thee te zetten .Strijkplank, broekpers. Prima Engels ontbijt. Dus een fijn hotel.

18/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

Personeel in de ontbijtdienst

Personeel achter de receptie niet echt vriendelijk en ook niet bijster behulpzaam

Het personeel was voor Londense begrippen extreem aardig en gastvrij. De kamer was ruimer dan ik ooit heb meegemaakt.

28/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

Le personnel d' accueil et pour le petit déjeuner est très serviable et attentionné.Les choix pour le petit déjeuner sont possibles. Autour de l' hôtel beaucoup de restaurants pour le soir et accessibilité au Métro ( ligne Central ) à moins de 30 mètres.

L' accès wifi est cher ( ( 4 £50 pour 3 heures ) et on ne peut se connecter avec une bonne qualité que dans le salon d' accueil.

Очень большой по лондонским меркам номер. Нам повезло : в номере была большая веранда с видом на кенсингтонский парк. Очень удобно расположен.

Очень старая мебель.

Nice location.

Dirty and old.

22/08/2010 12:00:00 AM

agréable situation dans Londres proximité Hyde Park, bus et métro.Salle de bains propre et eau à bonne pression. Possibilité de laisser ses bagages à l'hôtel avant le départ.Permanence de l'accueil 24/24 chambres vieilles et propreté approximative des couvertures et des rideaux; draps usés. Personnel d'une amabilité moyenne. Petit déjeuner de qualité moyenne.

19/08/2010 12:00:00 AM

Gastvrije ontvangst en mogelijkheid om volgende dag een grotere kamer uit te zoeken.

Geen losse douchekop in badkamer, geen mogelijkheid een drankje te drinken.

25/07/2010 12:00:00 AM

La situación del hotel es muy buena, con dos estaciones de metro muy cerca. La habitación era muy amplia y limpia.

El desayuno es bastante flojo.

23/07/2010 12:00:00 AM

Es un encanto de hotel, y una sorpresa muy agradable, conociendo otros hoteles de Londres. Altamente recomendable. Espacioso, limpio, en el centro de Londres, con todas las paradas de Metro a un paso. Los comentarios que leí sobre el desayuno son completamente ciertos: una pasada, el tercer día no podíamos comer mas. La mejor opción.

Por decir algo, que pudiera incluirse el garaje en el precio.

21/07/2010 12:00:00 AM

situation près de kensington et notting hill

draps douteux??,matériel sanitaire vieillot et deglingué,rideaux de douche moisis.c'est la 1ere fois que nous avons une selection booking aussi médiocre.petit déjeuner 45 minutes d'attente avec excuses

Meget hjælpsomme og hyggelige ansatte i resepsjonen, generelt hyggelig personale av de vi var borti. Beliggenheten er glimrende med tanke på gangavstand til flere aktuelle områder og kort vei til undergrunn.

Synes generelt at hotellet var ganske slitt, en del oppussing bør foretas, kanskje også aircondtion. Vi hadde bestilt et rom til 5 personer, dette var romslig nok, men en slitt sovesofa var tilbudt til to av oss. På forhånd ble det avtalt at mar skulle sette inn en ekstra seng, dette ble ikke gjort (vi ba ikke om det under oppholdet da vi valgte å se hvordan ting fungerte som de var). Mye høylytt prat/diskusjon mellom de ansatte i frokostsalen som høstes godt ute blant gjestene.

The Hilton Metropole is located just 2 minutes from Edgware Road tube station and within 10 minutes walking distance of Oxford Street making it an ideal base to explore London. When we arrived, the lobby was very busy and had a feeling of disorganisation verging on chaos and certainly was not what I expected from a Hilton Hotel. The Costa Coffee Shop located in one half of the lobby by the lifts, gives you the impression of being in a shopping mall rather than a supposedly upmarket hotel. We had booked a deluxe room, however the room we were given on the 16th floor was small and tired looking and certainly did not look like a Deluxe Room I expected from looking at the website. I called down to reception to double check that the room we were given was definitely a deluxe room and after being put on hold for 10 minutes was told that indeed this was a deluxe room. When I pointed out that this is not as it appears on the website, I was told that the room had not been refurbished and to their credit I was offered an alternative room which we accepted. The alternative room located on the 20th floor was a little bit better in decor and size but still did not match the website, but I have to admit that the view made up for this. The view was over central London with good views of Hyde Park, the London Eye and even Big Ben and Westminster Abbey could be spotted. However the room on its own certainly was not special in any way or form and during the night and early morning we could hear the TV noise from the room next door. On check in we were asked whether we would like to receive a complimentary newspaper which I confirmed, but this was never received. I didn't mind about the paper, but from a customer service point of view, if something is offered and confirmed then it should be delivered as otherwise don't bother offering. The hotel has got a leisure club which included a Gym, pool, Sauna and Steam Room, but parts of the ladies changing room had a very unpleasant smell. On going out in the evening, we required a taxi. The doorman which we had seen earlier was nowhere in sight to assist, luckily there were a couple of taxis parked on the drive. The same happened when we left the hotel, no doorman in sight and no offering of any assistance with luggage. We went for breakfast at around 9am and the queue went outside the restaurant and reached from the restaurant to the group check in desk, again something that in my view should not happen. The hotel knows how many guests it has and how many require breakfast and should be able to cater for this. When we eventually reached the restaurant and the waiter showed us to our table, I asked for coffee and he told me that another colleague would come and take that order. 15 minutes later and having asked twice this still had not happened and I had to once again go and ask someone to bring us coffee. Breakfast was a buffet with both full English options including a chef making omelettes to order as well as a selection of cereals, breads, cold meats, cheeses and pastries. The hotel offers express check-out and the form stated by providing an email address a copy of the invoice would be emailed. It's now 4 days later and I am yet to receive this. Considering it was a special occasion stay (anniversary) I feel a little bit let down by the hotel, especially as I chose the Hilton Metropole because I stayed there before a couple of years ago and enjoyed my stay very much, maybe the hotel has just grown a little bit tired.

Nie hotel, good location, nice staff. Breakfast to expensive!! Charge 10 pounds for children, who only eat one bagel and have a glas of juice..14.99£ for adults is far to expensive too. Take away the textile carpets in the rooms, it is disgusting! Lots of spots and never been washed.

22/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

Even though the age of the building is noticable from the hallways, the location is great. The rooms are quiet. Walking distance to shopping, underground, buses. The floor level housekeepers practically don't speak any English. I had to call the housekeeping for a minor request.

18/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

This is a fantastic hotel, with a large, spacious lobby and modern, spacious rooms. Even though there are over 1000 rooms, everything seems to be clean and neat, and every single staffer I encountered was friendly, personable, and helpful. This included numerous people at the front desk, several different concierge workers, maids, waiters, and waitresses. My room was a single, and was larger than many others I've seen. Whenever I asked for something, it was brought to the room very promptly. Also, the location is perfect for most, right in the middle of town, with a subway stop actually in the same building, just a few steps outside from the hotel lobby. I highly recommend this hotel.

10/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

Firts time to London for us and the hotel and location were great. On the NE corner of Hyde Park with the Marble Arch tube stop around the corner and about 8 bus lines running right near by. I was very pleased with the hotel. Very modern styling, big inviting lobby with plenty of staff to help if needed. Room was nice and service kept it very clean. I would definitely recommend this to others and would stay here again myself. Only downside is that Wi-fi is expensive and hard to find Free hotspots in London.

28/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

Really great location, just around the corner from the tube, close to the oxford st shops, a nice restaurant lounge/restaurant. The room was a bit on the small side, but the shower was large and everything was clean. I would definitely stay here again.

since I traveled often for business on my last job, I remembered the affordability of the Cumberland Hotel. It has a spacious ,trendy lobby with a pleasant,somewhat uniformed staff.[...] when we arrived at the hotel--there were no bellman around,(which actually made the cab driver infuriated). My boss and I hauled our own bags throughout the hotel and when we arrived at the reception desk, the information the staff printed was incorrect.Luckily I printed a copy of our bookings ,as they were confirmed ,even though they had the wrong information. It wasn't until I produced those documents that the desk clerk made an effort to speak with his manager, before we checked in.The rooms was clean and neat (small) but very comfortable.I have noticed that on my last stays , the concierge staff seems to feel they are doing me a favor,if I ask for something.Overall, this stay wasn't as good as previous ones--but everyone is allowed a bad day.Since working out is essential when one travels, i feel that there fitness area needs improvement--i.e. more benches, more varied weights and better cardio machines.

02/01/2011 12:00:00 AM

This hotel was located in a GREAT area. That is about all I have to say positive about the Hotel. First off, they entered the wrong dates of my reservation and so they said I was to check-out a day earlier than what I booked! They then proceeded to barge into my Hotel Room WITHOUT KNOCKING, as I was changing! I had the door bolted and a "Do NOT Disturb" sign on the door. They walked RIGHT INTO MY ROOM WITHOUT KNOCKING asking me if I was checking out! No privacy, and VERY unprofessional. After I told the front desk what happened, they did not offer any comps...they just did not care. Most of the staff was rude; however, they were helpful getting transportation at the entrance to the hotel. The room service was quick, yet the food was terrible. The W Rhodes restaurant on site was fantastic! Best French food I had while in London, and excellent service. Rooms are VERY small. I will not stay at this hotel again.

02/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

Great location next to Marble Arch Tube, and very impressive public areas - modern with a lot of art and design. Bars and restaurants impress (Rhodes W1 has a michelin star!). Being such a large hotel (1000 rooms) in a prime location gets very busy - so check-in and breakfast service can be very hectic. Unfortunately the rooms do not match the public areas - despite the multi-million pound refurbishment of this hotel, the room we stayed in (a deluxe double) only had a basic makeover - it was a little shabby and the room was pretty small. Overall, it was average.

16/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

Big, busy and very average... The location is very good though

15/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

The Cumberland is a very nice hotel. Next to Marble Arch on Oxford Street it's the perfect location to get around London. Newly renovated, great reception area, nice bar (though pricey). Rooms are all new, modern and very clean. Very limited closet space though. Beds are really comfy! What I didn't like was I was offered an "upgrade" to a room with a view. Reaction from reception was that they reluctantly accepted I had booked through HotelClub and not directly with the hotel. So I had to pay extra to get a room with a view. I ended up paying 25 pound/ night for the room "upgrade" and for online access. Another thing you should watch out for is not to accept a room with a connecting door to an adjoining room. I didn't realise until the last night (not sure if anyone was staying there the previous nights). We could basically hear their conversation, their TV programs and even their sexual escapades. Didn't make a fuss as it was our last night but really do watch out for this.

Lobby was very artistic and clean. Elevators small and slow. Close to subway lines and restaurants. Rooms were great for a couple or individual. Orbit representative put me by the wrong subway line so I had to walk 1.5 miles to hotel from where I was supposed to be.

12/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

Excellent Location, Clean, small rooms, never take the single rooms as the double rooms are good for singles not couples. Ask your room to be in the new separated building, as the rooms there, much better and cleaner and the place is quieter.

09/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

Ottroligt bra läge precis vid Marble Arch/Oxford Street. Fräscha rum, även om den häftiga lobbyn inte riktigt avspeglar sig på rummen. Bra frukost, om än lite dyr.

11/01/2010 12:00:00 AM

La mejor ubicación en londres para ir de compras, a dos pasos del metro. El precio de la habitacion doble, mas bien pequeña, pero confortable y limpia, (una cama de matrimonio ) es asequible sino se desayuna en el hotel. Ya que el desayuno es muy caro, 19 libras por persona y dia. Si tengo que volver a londres, repetiria, sin dudarlo, es de los mejores que he visto en londres en cuanto relacion calidad/precio.

21/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

Une catastrophe. Nous avons payé pour deux nuits dans une chambre DE LUXE avec ptt déj, la chambre était toute petite, pas de linge de bain, pas de peignoir, pas de sèche cheveux qui fonctionne... et pas de ptt déj !!!! De plus, pour le check in et pour le check out des files d'attentes énormes, pas d'organisation... une véritable usine qui se fout du client...

"Just my kind of hotel" The Russell is just the kind of hotel I enjoy. It lived up to my expectations. The physical appearance inside and out is great. The location is great. We had a late night meal in the library - also great. I can't think of a ne thing to say about our stay. Area recommendations Bloomsbury, South Kensington These are the only 2 neighbourhoods I know - and they are great.

17/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

"Need to be on the ball" The location of this hotel is good for sights such as the British Museum, shopping or the theatre. The tube station is just round the corner. The pavement outside was being worked on which made it look untidy but it was a good problem. You do need your wits about you. They will charge you £15 per day for the internet (which is not mentioned on their website). Also if you are having breakfast book it when you check in or the price almost doubles. Agg mention on the website. Overall it's a reasonable hotel though. Area recommendations Covent Garden is a very interesting area with lots of character just to wander around. There is always something happening - street theatre etc. Plus it home of the Royal Ballet. Also the south bank area - just strolling along by the river is an interesting experience. The London Eye has become an iconic landmark.

14/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

"Would love to go back" The Hotel Russell was located in an excellent area and convenient to the underground. The "superior" room had a big clawfoot bathtub, which was wonderful for soaking after long days of walking around London. O would love to go back.

14/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

"Location Superb, Hotel ok." Truth. The service at Hotel Russell is non existence. Don't worry about tips because there is no one to tip. In my case this was good as I don't like tipping someone for opening a door that I was going to open The hotel is clean, but they only have 1 medium lift (elevator) and 2 very, very small ones. Sometimes a squish with other riders. On the way down, there is a very large stair case we took that is beautiful and great for some pictures with it stained glass. The room was clean, but you could tell they refurbished the room cheap. The bathroom had a good idea but craftsman ship made it look lower class. The fan in the bathroom does not work well so the whole bathroom steam the shower door is no good so water is everywhere when you are done. You do get a flat screen TV with only 8 channels and 4 of those are blurry. We were out 16hrs a day and the best thing was when we came back, the maid did a fabul and also voided to take our tips we left day after day. Almost felt like we didn't even need the closet security save they provided. In all, we still enjoyed are stay but will try another hotel next time. But like everyone say's LOCATION, LOC LOCATION. This one has it. Underground, grocery mart, mall, train to paris, park, bus stops, hop-on hop-off tour and many food joints all with in 5 minute walk. Area recommendations Everywhere is great. Chinatown, Covent Gardens and Hop-off tour are the best. When to go We went in early November which was good because it was nice and brisk with little delays anywhere. Very few tourist's which is great when you are one. Getting around Buy a week pass or Oyster c because you will use the Underground more than you think. Hop-on hop-off tour will let you see everything. Start early though. Must see Covent Gardens, Palace, St James Park, The best thing we did is get lost and go where we did not fr found some amazing places. Very Safe in London. Police don't even carry guns.

05/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

"Small room, inappropriately furnished" I guess that hoping for a decent size of room in a city centre hotel is a bit much, but at least they might consider putting appropriately sized furniture in it. The huge arm chair just got in the way, the v table was pretty useless and the bed was very small. The aircon in the room was not working and opening the window let too much noise in - resulting in a very disturbed night's sleep.

27/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

"Hotel Russell - The good and bad" I've stayed at the Hotel Russell many times. It is centrally located near the West End and approximately a block away from the Russell Square Tube stop on the Piccadilly Line (which connects Heathrow t London). I was a bit disappointed on my most recent stay. When I checked into the hotel, I was sent to a room that was in a category below the one I paid for. I immediately went back to the front desk. They checked my reservation and they made a mistake, apologized and put me in the correct room. When I got there the room was significantly bigger than the one that I had paid for (that was the good news). The bad news was that the refrigerator that was included wit of the room was missing and the phone did not work properly. Overall, front desk staff were pleasant and helpful. One major problem I have encountered on my two most recent stays at the Russell (separated by 5 months) is that the ph system at the hotel is not always in working order. Dialing the front desk from my room or from anywhere (including outside of the country) resulted in an unanswered ring. The front desk told me that they were having problems with their system and would need to re-set it. After the re-set, the phone worked and I could receive and make calls that went through the front desk (including international calls from home). However, this was a persistent problem that occurred th my 4-day stay there. Area recommendations In choosing a hotel in London, I recommend staying close to the Piccadilly Line on the London Tube -- especially if flying in from Heathrow. The Piccadilly Line connects the airport with several m areas within Central London worth visiting and lodging at including in order from Heathrow: Gloucester Road and South Kensington (upscale area with cheaper hotels than further along the line), Knightsbridge (Harrods), Green Park (Buckin Palace), Piccadilly Circus, Leicester Square, Covent Garden, Holborn (all prime tourist areas and the heart of the Theater District in the West End), Russell Square (Bloomsbury - nice park), The British Museum, Dickens Museum), Kings Cross, Pancras (Eurostar Rail Service to the continent - including Paris and Brussels, as well as rail connections to many cities in Britain). Additionally, several key Tube lines cross the Piccadilly in central London (including the Victoria, Northern, Cen District and Circle Lines, among others).

26/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

"Hotel Russell" The Hotel exterior and lobby is amazing - Victorian era splendor! The staff is very knowledgeable and friendly. The room was very spacious and comfortable with an up-to-date bathroom. The location is a little out of the wa; however the tube station is half a block away and is a very convenient way to get around London (as long as the workers aren't on strike). There is a shopping center 1 block away with a grocery store, restaurants etc. Exchange your cur across the street at the post office (the best rates in town). The Hotel bar is open fairly late and is a great place to end the night. We would definitely stay again if the price is reasonable. Area recommendations Knightsbridge / Mayfair - Ker

20/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

"A pleasant experience." I spent two nights at the Russell. The room was clean and attractive, albeit on the small side (not by London standards, however) I did discover that the charge for local phone calls is outrageously expensive. I didn't the restaurants, which seemed overpriced, as well. There are many restaurants in the area, so this is not a problem.

20/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

"Very good choice" The Hotel Russell is an old and established hotel on Russell Sq, just around the corner from the tube stop, located near many very good restaurants. I had a very comfortable stay. The room was clean and tidy and, for I part, quiet. Highly recommended. Area recommendations Bloomsbury is a great area of London. Many, many good restaurants, bookstores and the British Museum. Wait more could you want? Getting around Get an Oyster card. It make traveling on the tube very, very easy.

03/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

"Extremely Disappointed" We had high hopes for this hotel from looking at the pictures and reading the reviews on Expedia. Unfortunately, they did not live up to our expectations. This hotel should be rated 3 star, not 4 star. The hotel co areas need better upkeep. The elevator stopped in between floors at one point and the doors opened and closed and then continued on properly. There were room service items left in the hall for over 24 hours during our stay. The quality o rooms vary greatly! The service is very lacking. They could not even provide a stamp for a postcard, although they did offer to mail it if I could get a stamp myself. Now, wouldn't I just mail it from the post office, if I had the time to go buy myself? The concierge went missing for about 10 minutes when we were trying to retrieve our bags that we checked with him for the day. We heard others complain about the concierge service too, specifically in regard to calling for taxis. has a fantastic location and a beautiful facade, but that is where the good things end. Area recommendations All the neighborhoods in London have great things to see and do. Getting there We took the Eurostar from Paris and the hotel is walking distance from the train station or one stop by underground if it is raining. Getting around The hotel is right by the Piccadilly Line of the underground system. It provides easy connection to any of the other underground lines. The Picca also provides service to Heathrow airport. It is about a 5 minute trip. What to pack Umbrella Must see Borough Market Sir John Soane's Museum Harrods Food Halls Tate Modern St. Paul's Cathedral etc... Shopping Harrods Dept. Store L Co. Dept. Store on Regent Street Harvey Nichols Dept. Store Dining Hakkasan Borough Market Food Stalls Events and shows Priscilla, Queen of the Desert - The Musical at the Palace Theatre

29/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

"gorgeous hotel in great location" A grand old hotel in great condition, close to the British Museum, walking distance to The Strand, Trafalgar Square etc. & Tube stop (with lifts) just around the corner from hotel entrance - direct from H&R Airport on the Piccadilly line. Our standard room quite cosy & comfortable, lovely buffet breakfast extra cost but worth it for a treat. Plenty of cheaper options nearby from "Pret a Manger" etc & a lovely park across the street from Hotel R! enjoy a picnic breakfast or lunch. Very quiet inside, air conditioning works well for comfortable sleeping. Only drawback - no exhaust fan in bathroom, so a sauna-like experience to shower. (This seems a universal complaint with UK & Euro hotels however - no big deal.) Would definitely come back to Hotel Russell. Area recommendations Russell Square is a great location, & feels very safe at all hours of the day or night. Close to great restaurants, shopping, various public transport options, walking distance to the British Museum, Trafalgar Square, Covent Garden, The Strand etc. Lovely park in Russell Square itself.

23/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

"Excellent Central London Hotel" The Hotel Russell is a lovely old hotel. The newly renovated rooms (if you get one) were excellent; very comfortable with modern amenities. However, the hotels' overall age made some of the public area a little run-down to me. The concierge staff was very helpful, albeit a bit pushy with the tour tickets (which actually worked out well for us since we needed them). The convenience of the nearby Underground station, the plentiful neighborhood options, and the beautiful Russell Square park rounded out a very enjoyable stay. Getting around The nearby Russell Square Station provided convenient access to the Underground. This was our primary means of exploring London. Dining breakfast at the small cafe in Russell Square directly across the street from the hotel. For lunch go to the "Friend At Hand" pub behind the hotel. A few blocks farther, you'll find plenty of dining options in The Brunswick.

22/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

"Not impressed at all" Bad service, lobby, cleaning, bar 2 stars service in a 3 star hotel

11/08/2010 12:00:00 AM

"Comfortable and Accessible Hotel" As above, this hotel is very comfortable with hospitable staff. The hotel is situated around the corner to Russell Court tube station, so no problems there. It has some handy shops nearby which seem to open long hours and is situated in a nice area. The rooms are comfortable with en suite, tea/coffee making facilities. The only drawback is that it has no double glazing so it is very noisy owing to traffic. Area recommendations It was just an overnight stay, so I didn't get much time to look around, but it seemed friendly and clean. Getting there Right on the Piccadilly tube line, so you can get on at Heathrow and be at Russell Square in approx an hour. The hotel is just around the corner so you can't miss it.

23/07/2010 12:00:00 AM

"Victorian splendor" The Russell isn't the hippest of hotels, but if you like Victorian splendor you'll love just coming into the lobby, which is an extravaganza of marble. The exterior is fun to look at too. We had reserved a double but got to late, and all they had was a three-room suite, which of course was fine with us! Good location, and although it was on a busy street the room was quiet. Only problem was the wi-fi in the room, which was unreliable. Area recommendation: Bloomsbury -- it's close enough to walk to many sights and theaters in the West End, but relatively quiet. There are a lot of hotels there, so there's a good choice of breakfast places.

14/07/2010 12:00:00 AM

"Excellent Location." The hotel is literally next door to the Tube stop on the Piccadilly line. You can take the Tube from Heathrow and stop at your hotel making the airport transfer as easy and cheap as it can be. The hotel is also very close to shopping center with a large supermarket and a number of restaurants and coffee shops. The room was comfortable and the price was right (for London!).

29/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

"don't judge a book by its cover" this hotel looks great from the lobby and is a great location but its a dump. Its more like a 2 star than a 4 star. My room was so small that i upgraded to a room that was tiny. There was no wifi in room an internet service was abysmal for the price. It should not advertise itself as a 4 star because its nowhere near at that level.

16/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

"good" venerable, old, ornate hotel in an ideal location sightseeing, very clean, staff quite courteous and helpful. Area recommendations Bloomsbury has the British Museum and the British Library as well as other things of interest and good restaurants. Getting around use the tube! Shopping take a walk down Old Bond Street and New Bond Street. Events and shows great theatre! Get 1/2 price tickets @ TKTS booth in Leicester Square.

04/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

"Had its good points and bad points" Neither the heater nor the Internet connection worked in the first room they gave me. In fact, they knew the Internet connection did not work and had to change me to another room (after I had unpacked the first room). I got the sense that the place could be better managed and maintained. On the positive side, the building is quite beautiful and the staff generally friendly and professional. Despite my complaints, I would stay there again. Area recommendations I did not have much time to explore it, but the neighborhood the hotel is in is very nice with lots to offer, including lots of nice restaurants. I did make it to the British Museum and I highly recommend that. It is fun just to walk around the neighborhood and its parks.

02/05/2011 12:00:00 AM

"Can't beat the location" Great location on Russell Square - the hotel is large, but the staff is friendly and accessible. Our rate included a full breakfast which was delicious. Would definitely stay there again.

29/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

"Easy and comfortable!" We got a great upgrade! The room was two stories and had an amazing view of Paris. The hotel isn't anything too fancy, but very comfortable and clean. The staff was very accommodating, as well - I was running my train and the concierge printed my boarding pass for me. I would definitely stay here again. Area recommendations Marais and Saint Germaine.

27/02/2011 12:00:00 AM

"Great neighborhood, classic hotel, beautiful rooms." Great location, near the British Museum. Only a 15 or 20-minute walk to the theater district and Chinatown, and a little farther to Trafalgar Square. I felt very safe in the neighborhood. The rooms were cozy and recently renovated. Beds were very comfortable. We had the full breakfast every morning - not cheap, but well done and it's nice to start the day with a little pampering. The rooms were clean and it was lovely to have hot water immediately in the shower every day! Area recommendations I like the Bloomsbury neighborhood because it is close to the British Museum and not a long walk from the Theater District and Trafalgar Square. Several smaller hotels are available in the neighborhood and it doesn't feel like you are always with foreign tourists.

18/02/2011 12:00:00 AM

"Would go back" Nice old Victorian hotel with quite modern amenities. Small room, but clean and modern bathroom. Area recommendations Mayfair, Soho

11/02/2011 12:00:00 AM

"Beautiful Victorian Hotel with the modern touch!" What a stunning hotel which looks amazing from the outside with beautiful Victorian touches including the outstanding marble staircase! Great location in London - very central to everything, short walk from Covent Garden. Lovely clean and comfortable room with amazing pillows too!

Overall a good holiday, the hotel was great, it was situated directly at the beach was perfect, staff very friendly, food was always okay, but rather a matter of taste some preparation, excursions were bookable, partly, but unfortunately you almost as a promotional trip before, individual services then had to be paid extra and you were to buy different shops which was really irritated by the people as were very pushy

I just got back from my holiday from Gran Canaria and stayed in Barbados Apartments. My first words are I will not be going back there at all to Gran Canaria. We went as a family of 6, me, my partner and two kids and my sister and her little boy, my sister stayed in a different hotel. The good points were the staff and cleaners are lovely, very nice people welcomed us very well, and your rooms get cleaned nearly every day apart from Thursdays and Sundays. The hotel is situated above shops, restaurants and pubs, extremely noisy on a night even right up till early hours, I never got much sleep because of all the noise and we were on the top floor. Had people ringing the bell at 6 o'clock in the morning waking us all up and running off thinking it was funny. We didn't get in the pool because first day we tried it and it was just too deep for the kids, I'm just over 5ft and I couldn't even touch the floor and the bar was in next doors pool so everyday we went down to my sister's apartment which was called Montemar that was a lovely hotel. The pools were great, there's a park for little ones and pool tables etc for older ones also a bar which served lovely food and a lovely bloke that works in it. Barbados Apartments are just standard basic, we had a portable TV which we had to put money in to be able to watch it, the bathroom smelt of sewage which was coming from the b-day so I put a glass over the plug hole and the smell went away cos I couldn't stomach the rank smell. The lifts were always broke. The weather was fantastic thought for the whole two weeks we stayed for it was between 25°C - 31°C came home lovely and tanned. Not much to do on an evening if you go as a family with kids, wouldn't recommend it for a family who want a good holiday, it more a relaxing place but the night life is awake in the Yumbo Centre, specially for gays, and last for not least it's the most expensive place I have ever been to we spent a bomb its prices are ridiculous we had to even get money transferred over threw the Western Union because we ran out of cash that expensive..... would never go again.....

Having previously worked in the travel industry for 10 years I now have to pay full price for my holidays. I have travelled all around the world but have enjoyed nowhere more than the six times I have stayed at the Barbados Apartments in Playa del Ingles. The apartments are not luxurious but they are clean and cleaned daily. The staff are extremely friendly and helpful and they remember you! At the moment I don't want to go anywhere else for my main holiday. I will be going in a week's time and then I am sure I will be planning the same holiday next year! Check out Lorraine Bowen's song "Yumbo Centre, Gran Canaria" on YouTube. It's brilliant. Her new CD is out this month - I can't wait for it!!

"J'ai souvent été dans des 5 étoiles et celui-ci n'est pas en vain. Beaucoup trop chère pour se qu'il est. Sinon propre, assez bien entretenu. Par contre très bien placé dans le centre de Londres, arrêt de métro à 1 min à pied.

hotel superbe digne d'un 5 étoiles super bien placé pour tous nos déplacements en bus metro taxi tout est facile à deux pas de picadilly et à 3 rues du magasin abercrombie & fitch (il faut être patient) une demi heure pour entrer et 1 heure payer mais on le sait c'est le succès de cette enseigne.Revenons sur l'Hotel placé dans une ruelle il est au calme hall d'entrée immense resto+ bar ; chambre immense moquette bien épaisse donc absolument pas de bruit ; nous avions pr chambre familiale avec 2 gds lits vraiment super ; tv b&o ; sdb en marbre bien chaude tout à dispo. Le personnel est très à l'écoute ; voliturier et taxi sont en permanence devant l'hotel .

Das Hotel befindet sich an sehr guter Lage und ist auch schick eingerichtet. Störend ist jedoch, dass die Zimmer nicht so gründlich gereinigt werden (gründlicher staubsaugen) und die Lobby extrem nach einem penetranten Parfüm (welches direkt in die Klimaanlage gesprüht wird) stinkt. Check-in war reibungslos obwohl viele Tour-Busse Leute vor dem Hotel abladen. Frühstück war gut und reichhaltig. Im Verhältnis zu anderen Hotels dieser Kategorie preislich eher günstig.

L"hotel è in una bellissima posizione e probabilmente, considerata la zona, è uno dei meno costosi o quanto meno con giusto rapporto qualità/prezzo. Non lo considero però un 5 stelle. Tra le cose più negative, il bagno. Le camere sono silenziose e arredate normalmente (niente di lussuoso ma pulite).

20/07/2010 12:00:00 AM

La situation géographique de l'hôtel est son meilleur atout. Il se trouve proche de Buckingham Palace et des quartiers de Soho, Picadilly, Regent street.....Il est situé dans une rue calme. Le standing de l'hôtel est bon et j'y retournerai sans problème.

01/05/2011 12:00:00 AM

Quick check in, room available on arrival at 9am, lovely large room with 1st class bathroom, housekeeping excellent, friendly staff, breakfast fine with exception of porridge which was not great. Would definitely stay again.

24/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

The hotel was very clean and most of the staff were helpful and friendly. We did change our room as the first roomwe had was very dark but the staff were very accommodating and moved us to the other side of the hotel where the room much better. The Mayfair bar has a great atmosphere and the cocktails are very good! The location is ideal as everything is walking distance from the hotel. The concierge advised us on some restaurants and we ended up in a lovely little It place. Overall a very nice hotel and I would definitely recommend and i would stay there again.

22/02/2011 12:00:00 AM

The hotel was very, the beds were very uncomfortable. Was not worth the money we paid though, very expensive for a very average hotel

03/01/2011 12:00:00 AM

This hotel is an excellent position for west end shops etc however the hotel was left wanting in the quality of our room and service. We had booked a family room which only had a very small shower room and no bath, very little space to r toiletries etc. No dressing table in the room. Our room was a little dusty round the edges, dirty cups were not taken away or replaced when the room was made up, the tea and coffee were not replenished and there were no biscuits and o ghasly UHT milk pots. The bar fridge was not plugged in. Breakfast was fine but expensive, unfortunately the dining room is not big enough for the hotel, so it is rather pot luck as to whether there is a table for you, otherwise you may hav 20 minute wait in the foyer. Unacceptable in our opinion for a five star hotel. In a nutshell I am sure there is better value for money elsewhere. Simply not good value for the money.

19/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

The stay was pleasant, hotel clean and well maintained, but the room allocated was the furthest possible from the reception which was a bit annoying. Also for the size of the hotel there were only 3 lifts and 1 of these wasn't working so it meant we had to use the stairs on most occasions. The cost of drinks was ridiculous but expected for a hotel of this type. I probably wouldn't stay here again mostly because for a short weekend stay in London it is just a bit too far walk distance fro the shops and WestEnd.

07/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

As soon as I arrived I was made to feel welcome. I went there as a birthday surprise for my boyfriend as soon as The receptionist saw that I had brought my own mini champagne and cake, she offered to have somebody to set it all up fo In the evening the food in the restaurant was amazing, I'm still thinking about it now! The whole ambiance of the hotel was really good and my boyfriend and I would definatly go back.

01/08/2010 12:00:00 AM

Very comfortable, great service and friendly, professional and non-stuffy staff. The spa was terrific.

04/07/2011 12:00:00 AM

Was very much looking forward to staying at the Mayfair once again, and booked it specifically over other options. We were very disappointed and the Mayfair appears to be resting on its once very fine laurels. We won't be returning but w check it out once in awhile as far as the lobby and restaurants at least for the next say, 2 years, while we stay elsewhere to see if the Mayfair can get back on track to what it used to be. Issues - On entering the lobby - the doorman who always was very cheery and helpful had disappeared on a Sunday evening. Later in the stay, a doorman appeared. The smell of a very heavy unpleasant scent hung over the lobby and remained during our 3 day stay, added to that the mus was much to loud to set the tone of the place as it used to be. Overall, a very unwelcoming feeling every time one entered the lobby. Breakfast provided has gone down in quality and options. Much fewer buffet options which used to be a highlight at the Mayfair. A sense of cutting back pervaded the hotel. Hall corridors and carpets were worn in places and looking threadbare in some. Again not one would expect from a hotel such as Mayfair. Room was OK, just. Smallish wit again a carpet that needed replacing, grouting missing in the bathroom and again in general a feel that the best days were gone and it all needed a good refurb and shake up. Pricing remained on the high side which is acceptable if in keeping the property itself. This is not the case at the The Mayfair any longer and so will have to book elsewhere until it gets its act together once again and hopefully it returns to being one of the best in London.

Best hotell I would recommend this to anyone. Outstanding walking location to parks, monuments, tube, nightlife...everything. Royal service and care given to every guest....from the rich and famous to our family traveling for leisure. We t the family room. It was spacious and very comfortable for four. The bathrooms are huge which is a big plus with four. The conciege was so hopeful and easy to work with. Spend the extra money and pick this hotel for your London trip!

I had to stay at three different 5-star hotels this time, The May Fair, InterContinental and Hilton Park Lane. The May Fair had the best location to everything, even though the others were only 500 meters further down the street. You have walking distance to Picadilly and Leicester Square, you have good restaurants right across the street, a couple of minutes to Bond Street and shopping. The Picadilly Line tube station Green Park is right outside the hotel, it takes about 55 m to Heathrow, without having to change trains, which was very good. My room (regular room on 8th floor with no view) was very big for being a London-hotel. The bathroom was enormous with both bath tub and shower and place for two persons. There was a built-in LCD TV by the bath tub (!!) which was cool. If I have to complain about anything there were 2 things: First the internet didnt work, they had two different wireless connections and one with cable, but they coul manage to get any of them to work. (The May Fair had free internet, both Hilton and InterContinental charges about 20£ per day) The second thing was the bed, when I first sat down on the bed, it sounded like it broke down. When I loo under the mattress, the wood had released itself from the sides, so it was basically breaking down. It was easily fixed though, but maybe one should require more from a 5-star hotel, I dont know. And if you are a light sleeper, ask for a ro that is not right next to the elevators.

My friend and I stayed at the Mayfair for 4 nights for a London getaway. The hotel is hopping yet the rooms are quiet and comfortable. They have 2 very sophisticated bars and all service was excellent. You are in the very best area with to great shopping and sights in walking distance. Stay at this hotel!

My partner and I stayed at the hotel for our anniversary. The staff were polite and helpful. There was some discrepancy over the breakfast as I had ordered a full breakfast for us both yet the hotel had not got a record of that but it was sorted. The hotel corridors are beautiful and it feels 5*, however the room was not quite so luxurious. The room was a superior king sized room. It was spacious but lacking in the little luxuries that make a hotel 5*. The bathroom was less average. It was tiny, the sink was cracked and the cover of the tissues was broken so they kept falling out. I was very disappointed with the bathroom. The breakfast the following morning was very very busy and we had to wait to be served. The service was very slow and we had to wait a long time to be served. Overall we enjoyed our stay, however I have stayed in far superior 5* hotels in London and this would not be my first choice next time.

The Mayfair apparently attracts quite a lot of celebrities who like staying there, but unfortunately I did not come across any during my stay there. Not that I was hoping to meet any celebrities of course, but that would have been a bonus. = staying at this hotel at times makes you feel a tad celebrity-ish though, as there quite often is a bunch of people at the front door trying to catch sight of celebrities or just waiting for people before they head to the Mayfair bar or something. Location-wise, this hotel is fantastic. A short 2 minute walk to Green Park tube station which is just around the corner; which has 3 lines running through it, thus you can get pretty much anywhere in London pretty quick and easily. It is also about 2 blocks or so from Bond Street, where you can shop for just about any brand, and this shopping street links you up with Oxford Circus for even more shopping once you reach the end of bond street. Also, it is very walkable from M to Leinster Square, where you can catch all the musicals every night. (Just about a 15 minute walk away) Great value for money if booked early through Hotels.com, but believe would be quite pricey for last minute bookings. Would stay there again if I'm headed to London in the future!

From the moment we came we find ourselves facing a problematic service that is not typical for a 5 stars hotel. First they told us that they will upgrade our room to a bigger room, but they forget to tell us that the Room will be next door - noisy construction work in other room. Since the first day the maintenance service was not as it supposed to be in such an Hotel, for example although asking from the front desk at list 5 times we were waiting to get show polish sponge = sponges for more then 2 days. Although asking to clean the room - in some cases we had to remind the front desk that we did not received this service. Our messages to the "duty Manager" and our request to talk with him were never answered. At the end of the day this hotel is busy in being "cool" instead of in providing good service - in this price and in this area you can find better options this hotel is in the best location. very posh. most comparable to a W Hotel in Times Square NYC.

19/08/2010 12:00:00 AM

The hotel was very nice and the food at the main restaurant was excellent.

14/08/2010 12:00:00 AM

The May Fair hotel in London was a great place to stay. It is centrally located near all of the major attractions. Also, if you are a "star gazer" this is the place to be. The paparazzi is camped outside this hotel all the time. The room was large European hotel room. The only odd thing was the shower in our bathroom. The shower is open on one end, and ended up flooding our bathroom floor, but it was really no big deal.

14/08/2010 12:00:00 AM

Impression is that rich people lives in this hotel. It has its own business-centre where you can use internet included in the room-rate. Nice surroundings with good atmosphere. Excellent location close to Green Park and the tube. Tesco and shops in neighborhood. Very nice service at breakfast. Bathrooms are very comfortable even if the toilet was a little cornered making it difficult to sit down and the bath-tub television was out of order. Other minus was the long wait for elevators and also slamming of doors from the corridor which we heard too well. In general very nice stay in excellent location and I guess you get about what you pay for. Would come back.

Vi hadde høye forventninger til hotellet da vi ankom London for en langhelg. Da vi kom inn i lobbyen var det et behagelig og elegant førsteinntrykk vi fikk. De som tok oss i mot var hyggelige og profesjonelle. Det var tydelig allerede da at de var et 5-stjerners hotell. Rommet var stilfullt og enkelt. Et minus var at et av skapene var ødelagt inni og at kllesskapet var plassert på badet. Rengjøringen av rommet var tilfredstillende og rengjøringspersonalet var smilende og hyggelig. Vi besøkte spa avdelingen på hotellet. Vi fikk massasje og benyttet oss av saunaene. Synes massørene var dyktige. Et lite minus er at spaet ikke har basseng. Vi besøkte også restauranten. Grei mat, men ikke noe spesielt. Hotellet ligger ikke langt fra Green Park og Buckingham Palace. Green Park underground ligger like ved. I løpet av et par minutter er man på Regent street og Oxford street. Alt i alt er dette et flott og elegant hotell som vi gjerne kan tenke oss å komme tilbake Fint hotel med super plassering i May Fair. Gratis internet på værelserne, men alt for dyr morgenmad. God restaurant på hotellet og hyggelig bar med gang i den - især i weekenden.

10/02/2011 12:00:00 AM

The location and service at the hotel is great although I would rate the hotel as a 4 star rather than a 5 star hotel. The Restaurant was slightly disappointing. Overall I am happy with the stay at the Mayfair.

There are very good points about this hotel and less good points. If you want to be located in May Fair and you plan to use metro, bus and taxi transport in a combination, the May Fair hotel is an alternative to the Ritz. Five minutes walk from Green Park tube and Piccadilly. However compared to other hotels in the top legion, I think the May Fair is in the lower part of the five star scale. It cannot compete with hotels like the Ritz, the Claridges or the Connaught, if you want this c English opulent luxury feel. But if we take the prices of these hotels in consideration the May Fair is generally more cost effective. This provides a fair balance. We received a very good service when we arrived. We were early around 9.30 and had no problems with the check in. The room was ready for us even this early and no fuss about it. Friendly reception staff. The room was spacious, clean, a little on the minimalist interior style. Internet connection through the TV if you don't have a computer with you but they charge for this which I find quite irate. They do provide ordinary products for the bath room. This is still quite common among many five star hotels so the May Fair shouldn't be blamed specifically this. But in the future I think that five star hotels will have to change their policies in this field towards high quality products like sulfate-free and paraben-free shampoo. We didn't try the breakfast because this was ridiculously expensive and are so many local cafe's in the area. It wouldn't be fair to say that the breakfast over-charge is a specific issue related to the May Fair hotel. These days many five star hotels have a ridiculous over-charge on the breakfast and if they do not produce an outstanding quality, such as 100% organic ingredients and/or a exquisite experiential design/service, I find that I often prefer to use the free market in the local vicinity to secure me a better deal and this was easy here due to the location. The most posti Kallis hotelli, mutta liian paljon puutteita hintaansa nähden: hotellihuoneesta puuttui tullessamme mm. kahvikuppeja, pikakahvia ja lusikoita. Seuraavana päivänä siivouksen yhteydessä kaksi pyyhettä jäi puuttumaan. Oudoin tapahtuma hot oikutenkin aamupala. Kannattaa varata siihen paljon aikaa, sillä siihen joutuu odottamaan! Odotimme aulassa noin puoli tuntia, ja lähdimme sitten, koska edellämme oli vielä ihmisiä, jotka eivät olleet saaneet pöytää - ja tämä tapahtui noi yhdeksältä aamulla. Palvelu oli muuten hyvää ja kohtelasta. Parasta palvelua saimme ovimiehiltä ja vastaanoton henkilökunnalta. Harmi vain, että kylä näin kalliseen hintaan odottaisi täydellistä hotellivisittii, ei näin paljon puutteita.

Vi hade höga förväntningar. Det bör man ha på ett deluxerum på ett femstjärnigt hotell. Tyvärr blev vi väldigt besvikna då vi anlände till rummet som var litet och ganska enkelt. Inget av det som lyfts fram på siten stämde, bortsett från en badrummet vilket kändes ganska oviktigt för oss. Efter att ha klagat fick vi dock ett rum som var stort och fint. Det kändes märkligt att rummen kunde gå under samma klassificering, då det skiljde väldigt i kvaliteten. På det hela taget var vi i med hotellet, men det fanns också en hel del att anmärka på. Det fanns t ex ingen dimmer i badrummet vilket var väldigt märkligt. Vi bad personalen ta hand om ett krossat glas en em, men när vi kom hem så låg det kvar och vi fick be de igen. Inför vår ankomst mailade vi conciergen flera gången och bad om hjälp med helt normala saker (boka bra mat etc), men där fick vi ingen hjälp. Detta var några av de saker som tyvärr drog ned helhetsintrycket. Vi fick ett bra pris via hotels.com och på det hela taget var vi nöjda, men om man förväntar sig högsta klass på faciliteter och service så är det nog stor risk att man blir besviken.

29/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

Hotellet er helt moderniseret og fremstår helt i top. Service i såvel reception som i restaurant og bar findes ikke bedre. God morgenmad. Og så ligger hotellet bare perfekt i forhold til transport rundt til det øvrige London. Eneste mangel - badetøfler.

Selvom hotellet har en særdeles god beliggenhed for shopping i London City med en efter forholdne rimelig værelsespris, - er selv forholdsvis almindelige opholdsomkostninger som morgenmade dinner og især drikkevarer forholdsvis høje. Logestik omkring styring af borde og servering i restauranter virkede også rodet, uklar og langsom.

25/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

Het hotel ligt op loopafstand van zowel Oxford Street en Harrods als van Buckingham Palace, Big Ben en Westminster Abbey. Het personeel is erg vriendelijk en hulpvaardig. Prachtig hotel in rustige straat.

Close to Liverpool street station (10 minutes to go). We got ~50% price from hotel.info comparing to street price. Nice room, very good breakfast. Superb London view from Restaurant (also breakfast room).

It's time to change old TV to LCD :) Also, Wi-Fi internet is available only on Ground floor and Restaurant (7th floor).

Lovely Room, Noisy Hotel Room good. First floor with single glazed windows make for a noisy night and early morning wake up from the bin men.

01/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

A romantic weekend The location of the hotel is extremely convenient, literally just a two minute walk from Russell Square on the Picadilly line. First impressions of the exterior & interior (main stairway & dining room) leave a special glow. Above the third floor the hotel becomes plainer and the rooms although well maintained are a slight let down from the magnificence of the ground floor. Staff are extremely welcoming, courteous and cannot do enough to help.This was our second stay, we will definitely stay again and would recommend to friends.

01/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

I booked a double room for my wife and myself. On arrival I found the bed very small. I took the matter up with reception who told me all the doubles were queen size. In fact the bed was only 4ft 6ins wide. We spent an uncomfortable night. The room No. was 418.

01/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

The Hotel Russell Experience We were very impressed with the beauty of the Hotel. The service was excellent and added extras fulfilled as promised. The hotel was immaculate, including our room. We were visiting London on business but would have liked to spend more time enjoying the relaxed hotel environment. The only improvement may be a flat screen tv in the room with more channels.Nevertheless I would rebook without hesitation.

01/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

A disappointing stay for a number of reasons.... The bed in my room was broken and when reported it wasn't fixed, i had to report it a second time and it still wasn't fixed. There were only two sockets in the bedroom for charging multiple phones, a laptop and using a hairdrier/straighteners. My credit card was charged when i was assured no money would be taken and i can't comment on the food as i missed breakfast on both mornings because i had to queue at reception to complain.

01/05/2011 12:00:00 AM

Lovely room, clean , had difficulty with lock on room reception seemed to think my problem, The ding room was half closed, this made the atmosphere poor, half lit, room lovely and clean, but would not return due to dining poor and felt customer service could have been better.

01/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

Good hotel, but as for all London, expensive No fault with the hotel. Very good and ideally located. But all London hotels are pricey.

01/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

A lovely place to stay in the heart of theatreland Again a lovely reception, clean and bright room, nice breakfast, comfoctable bed, another excellent experience in my favourite hotel where I choose to stay for my business trips to London. Well done to manager and all staff! Thanks loads

01/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

Pleasant Great location for British museum. Hotel location next to tube. Whilst room was clean we did feel it was a little tired and there was an old stale cigarette smell every time you entered the room probably from the carpets. However room was acceptable for our needs. Breakfast buffet was fab, evening meal good and reasonably priced.

01/01/2011 12:00:00 AM

Nice Hotel in handy location I was looking for a hotel that was in central London and wasn't too expensive. Hotel Russell wins on both counts. When you walk out of the front door of the Russell, you walk round the corner and into the tube station (Piccadilly line) within about 90 seconds. You can walk from St Pancras (if you haven't got too much baggage) in about 10/15 minutes, and once you're there you can walk to Covent Garden within about 15 minutes. The hotel itself is very nice, plush lobby and helpful friendly reception staff. The room we had was a tad on the small side, but it was comfy and seemed to have enough wardrobe space. The bathroom again was small, but was clean and comfortable with a nice shower. To be honest, apart from sleeping, we spent very little time in the room, so it was ideal to use as a base. Didn't use any of the hotel amenities as we were hardly there. Considering what you pay for hotels in Central London, I thought the price to be very reasonable, we paid £118.80 per night for the room. The hotel actually charged me this price, and then put the VAT on top when I checked out. I rang them to complain and they admitted there had been a mistake and reimbursed me without any real delay, I think I had the money owed to me back in my account within a couple of days. All in all, a very pleasant stay in a very pleasant hotel. Would definitely stay there again..

01/01/2011 12:00:00 AM

Good quality Hotel, brilliant location. Staff friendly. Make sure you book breakfast in, otherwise expensive. Waiting staff inexperienced but enthusiastic, very friendly but often more intent on performing functions than looking after customers. Whole environment excellent. Would recommend to anyone. Do not expect a cheap drink at the bar, almost extortionate. Food excellent.

01/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

My worst ever stay at the Russell Hotel This was not my first stay at the Russell so the disappointment is greater. I checked in late and was offered a "not so nice a room" as told by the receptionist on the 8th floor which meant I had to climb the last flight of stairs. Having a back problem I refused. The receptionist offered to give me an "executive" room on the first floor and of course I was delighted. My happiness was short lived when I saw the room. I paid for a double room and this room was clearly for sole use with a small bed next to the wall. Not to mention the broken tiles and cracked shower in the bathroom. I had an excellent view from my window - boilers!! as was the noise at six in the morning. Call this and executive room. I wonder if the receptionist was half asleep or simply making fun of me. Well that was disappointment no 1. Breakfast at the Russell was always the best and believe me it still is with regards to the food. But the service has a lot to be desired. Don't go for breakfast after 9.00am because you'll end up spending 15 minutes in the queue. And not because there is no place to sit but simply because the tables are not cleared by the dozen waiters running up and down the aisle looking lost and confused. And last but not the least disappointment no 3. Having paid for a shopping package for three days (almost GBP500) I was offered a GBP20 voucher from Harrods. I asked for my voucher everyday and always got the same answer, that they are waiting for them through the post. On my last day I demanded a refund and wasted an hour at the reception. I was told to collect my money in the evening because they had no cash available. But to my amazement was handed the voucher that same evening.

01/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

An tired old lady The Russell has probably seen its best days. Refurbishment has made a beautiful staircase and not bad rooms. However the Victorian windows and draughts still prevail. There are some very good and gracious staff who cannot do enough to help but they must be nearing retirement. The dining room staff have not heard of afternoon tea and are quite rude. I shall probably look elsewhere for a warmer hotel next time, especially at this price.

01/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

russel hotel excellent

01/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

We were very disappointed at our arrival at the hotel, we were given the key to our room. It was obvious on arrival at the room, no one had checked to see if it was ready. The room had not been made up. My husband phoned the reception, who told us to go back to reception, and they would try and sort it. At reception we were just given a key to another room, with no explanation and no apologise. How disappointing.

01/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

This hotel was very central with nice shopping centre a little further down from tube station. The twin-room was smaller than expected for 2 adults but was quiet and beds comfortable, the breakfast was good and lots of variety but didn't think it was value for money, considering other cheaper chain hotels are just as good. The windows were frosted over so couldn't see out and difficult to open and shut, was disappointed that the fridge in room was not working and drainage from the shower was blocked, smelt something awful and overflowed when we turned the taps on. The staff were friendly enough but for the price would have expected something better.

01/08/2010 12:00:00 AM

I recently stayed at the Hotel Russel for 1 night and I was very impressed with the exterior and entrance to the hotel. The check in staff were friendly and welcoming and our room although small was nicely decorated and the bathroom very clean. The only complaint I would have is that there was a large air conditioning duct/vent outside the window of our room and it made a constant noise which made it quite difficult to sleep. I would recommend the breakfast which had a large buffet style arrangement and had everything you could want for breakfast.

01/08/2010 12:00:00 AM

A mvery good weekend break hotel was central to all sights in London very accessible to Subway. Room clean and comfortable, pillows like mashmallows would love to know where they buy them. Only complaint would be the noise from pub, three floors below our room. If I had been staying for longer than the weekend I would have insisted on a room change to front of Hotel, They mayby should consider Double glazing? All in all A very enjoyable weekend

01/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

Perfectly okay Hotel Russell is a fairly pleasant and perfectly comfortable hotel experience.

01/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

London If the price is right I will stay again

01/02/2011 12:00:00 AM

Russell Hotel Review Whilst the room was clean and quite comfortable, we did have two complaints; There was no double glazing and the noise from traffic and groups of pedestrians chatting / singing between 11:30pm and 01:00am meant that sleep was often interrupted. The other problem was that the W/C was positioned in such a way that the users knees had to go under the sink!!!

01/02/2011 12:00:00 AM

Luxurious hotel The hotel had a luxurious outlook and the lobby. Our room was comfortable and our room was luckily spacious, yet we found the other rooms quite small. All in all we enjoyed our staying there.

01/01/2011 12:00:00 AM

Two-Night Stay On arrival we were quickly and efficiently checked in. Our room was very comfortable and clean, although the noise of the generator was a little intrusive. Breakfasts were excellent and checking out was, again, quick and efficient. Very good value for central London.

01/01/2011 12:00:00 AM

The Superior upgrade was well worth it! When we arrived we were given a small interior room. I called the customer service rep Eva and suggested that as we were staying for a week that we would like an exterior room. We upgraded to a Superior room which a turret overlooking the park. It was a lovely room with a great view. However avoid room service as it arrived cold. Nevertheless, Eva made our trip! Thanks, G

Shopper's paradise Fabulous hotel for a shopping break in London. Booked a twin and a double room for a family break but only two doubles available on the day. Large comfortable rooms within a 15 minute walk of the Strand. Breakfast was included and there was plenty of choice which all the family enjoyed. Staff were very friendly and the service was helpful. Requested an extra duvet and this was brought to the room within 10 minutes. Doorman wished the guests including us a Happy New Year on 1 January. Would definitely stay at this hotel again.

01/12/2010 12:00:00 AM weekend break Arrived at hotel at 8pm to find a double room had been allocated instead of a twin room. We were told that all twin rooms were booked and it was the fault of Late Rooms. Room was very small as was the bed! Very basic facilities, no mini bar and wallpaper was peeling off the walls. Windows were very draughty. Air conditioning unit in the room was very large, old fashioned and so loud we had to turn it off at night. Definitely not a 4 star hotel. Service was poor in the dining room and the concierge staff were not very professional in the way they dealt with visitors. We asked for extra milk and were given 3 small cartons to share!

01/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

Good central accomodation Good central accomodation for walking to the theatre. Good clean room and great breakfast. We were very impressed with the maid service.

01/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

Overnight stay Nov 2010 Nice hotel. Room pleasant. Bathroom on small side. Beds wonderful. Food and drinks expensive though for those who are not rich!

01/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

Beware the 8th floor! My husband and I travelled to London to celebrate our ruby wedding anniversary and booked into Hotel Russell. Staff were very friendly and helpful, and as we checked in they offered an upgrade to a suite, at a special rate, which we declined. After various other offers we were given a complimentary bottle of wine. We were booked into a room on the 8th floor that was most definitely not what we expected from a 4 star rated hotel. The lift only went up to the 7th floor and the heating didn't seem to reach the 8th floor either. The bed was tucked inbetween the eaves of the roof and the tiny window was at least twelve feet above floor level. It was poky dull, drab and cold. When we objected the young lady did comment that "it wasn't a very nice room" but although we had been offered a suite less than 30 minutes previously they then had no rooms left that evening to move us to. We were moved to the 4th floor the following day and given a reduction in the price so on the whole we were treated ok. The warning however is: if you are offered a room on the 8th floor - don't accept it.

01/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

Stunning hotel and first class service The only downfall was the *Special Offer* Shopping vouchers when booked which I never received.....not much but not what they said on the tin?

01/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

Good location, rooms well presented. Worth a room away from the main street as it can be quite noisy otherwise, but our stay was excellent, room very clean and hotel well located. Good eateries near by and essential shopping (Tesco Express across the road). Breakfast was good but service a bit hit and miss.

01/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

Ideal location for shopping, sightseeing and theatre weekend. Clean and not over expensive. Russell St underground is close by, but beware no escalators and either a 170 stair trip or a big queue at an elevator.

01/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

Needs a bit of love - but excellent location This hotel looks beautiful from the outside. The rooms are very tired though and really need a makeover. We arrived at about 2.30pm and I was glad that I had a copy of my booking with me, I had requested a twin room - they tried to give me a double. The receptionist looked at my paperwork 3 times before accepting that it should be twin room and promptly gave us exactly that - although it was a disabled room (so I had to be very careful not to hit the alarm button when turning on the lights). There was a lot of noise from ductwork just outside the window that ran all night. The paintwork and wallpaper was peeling, but the shower was great. Breakfast was lovely, but the evening meals for both myself and my colleague were very salty. Waitress service in the bar was very good, but paying the bill was a bit slow. Location wise the hotel is excellent, right next to Russell Square tube station, and a short walk from the British Museum and Covent Garden. I would definitely stay there again, if I could get an equally cheap deal, just for the location alone.

01/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

excellent hotel in the very heart of London Very friendly service, newly refurbished 7th floor room with pleasant views over Russell square, very clean and interesting design. Highly recommended for short stays.

01/08/2010 12:00:00 AM

this was a great hotel for our short stay in London. location central to our activities, we were able to walk to meals & theatre. room very comfortable & quiet enough for a major activity area. the breakfast was a nice spread with good service. the hotel staff was particularly helpful. we would definitely stay again.

01/08/2010 12:00:00 AM

Great room,great staff,fantastic area,brilliant value for money!

01/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

Excellent stay The bed was probably THE most comfy hotel bed I've experienced and the power-shower was impressive.

01/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

Great Weekend We booked a package and so did not expect one of the best rooms. However, our room was more than adequate for a leisure weekend. It did not face Southampton Row and as a result was the quietest London room ever! We only have minor comments - on the first morning we queued for breakfast and going later on the second day found we had to wait for toast and coffee orders to be taken - could have been a problem if we had travel times to make.

01/05/2011 12:00:00 AM

Booked through laterooms - great deal. Hotel was lovely - large double room. Comfortable bed. Very clean. Efficient checking in and out.

01/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

Hotel Russell trading on former glories - but it now needs another refurb! Our rooms were in need of upgrading - the televisions were old and the picture ghosted, a wall mirror was missing in one room, the handrail over the bath loose and the shower head leaking in the other - the bar gloomy and noisy - the menu sufficiently unexciting to persuade us not to try the food - on checking out we told the receptionist we thought the place needed money spending on it only to be told that floors 5 and 6 had been upgraded but as the hotel wasn't full why put us in rooms that hadn't been? - a poor show!

01/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

Single Room at Hotel Russell A well appointed single room. All I needed for an overnight stay. No noise. I slept well.

01/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

Perfectly fine Very happy with the location and comfortable surroundings.

01/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

en suite bathroom was miniscule with no adequate shelving for soap bags or toileteries.

01/02/2011 12:00:00 AM

Good hotel with really comfortable rooms and good serv ice. Great central spot, easy to access the west end from here

01/01/2011 12:00:00 AM

Ideal visit Chosen for convenience to St Pancras Station and Central London Attractions walking and by Tube. Very comfortable accommodation and felt that we were well looked after in quality surroundings

01/01/2011 12:00:00 AM

Give me faded grandeur any day! A grand hotel with an air of slightly faded grandeur. Def preferable to a soulless glass & steel box. Clean, comfortable room, excellent location and fair pricing. Overall happy with our stay.

01/01/2011 12:00:00 AM

Smallish room but good value Got a good rate on Laterooms probably because it's the quietest time of year. Normally the Russell is out of my price range despite it not always giving top quality. This time the room although smallish was very nice and decorated to a very high standard. Breakfast was lovely. I would use this hotel all the time if it was a bit cheaper.

01/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

Not a 4* hotel! Staff were friendly and hotel is in great location. It also looked very festive from the outside which was great! However, rooms should be sooo much better given price and apparent star rating! We were moved from our first room due to noise from a xmas party (we were upgrade to top floor suite!!) though both rooms were shabby, with amazingly poor tv reception for London! Interior leaves alot to be desired. All in all, not bad, but could be alot better.

01/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

Hotel Russell I've stayed at this Hotel a couple of times this year and it's now my hotel of choice. It is one of the more expensive ones, but I for my money I know that I'm going to get a nice room and good customer service. The rooms aren't the biggest, although the one I stayed in this weekend was a little bigger than the last one, however they are very clean and well maintained. The showers are nice and powerful, which maybe a minor detail to some, to me it's a bit of a deal breaker. The staff at reception are always polite and professional, not very chatty, but they are friendly and courteous, something other hotels might want to take note of! I'd highly recommend this if it's within your budget. I don't come to London very often to stay over so it's a treat for me, but one worth paying for. A bad hotel can ruin the whole weekend, I'm pleased to say that's never been the case here.

01/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

This hotel is in a great location for getting around London, 2 minutes walk from the Tube and also within fairly easy walking distance from the centre if you prefer the fresh air. It's rather faded grandeur is actually quite a nice change from other ultra-modern hotels. The rooms are not particularly spacious but are clean, although our room wasn't serviced after our first night, it's always nice to come in to a made bed!! We upgraded to a bigger room and it did make a difference. The reception staff were all very helpful and pleasant, as were the dining room staff. The only meal we had in the hotel was breakfast which was ok but nothing special. Overall, we enjoyed our weekend trip to London and would use the hotel again.

01/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

Great hotel,great location,good value for money Fabulous place to stay,,great location 5 minute walk to central london,tube station next door for travel to further parts of london,room was fantastic and warm.Staff friendly and helpful,breakfast was a delight and set us up for the day,added bonus of booking the shopper stay and receiving a free £20 Harrods voucher. All in all 10 out of 10.

01/11/2010 12:00:00 AM friendly hotel The staff were very friendly and helpful. The room was very nice and there was alot of room to move about being i am a wheelchair user,

01/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

Very good clean, friendly, efficient service and very good room.

01/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

Hotel Russell The Best Hotel What a fabulous 2 day stay we had from the minute we arrived the staff were very very helpful especially the concierge (he got us a great deal for a meal and show)Nothing to fault would go again.

01/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

Room was shabby, furniture was old and scruffy - bears no resemblance to the images on the website The furniture in the room was old and very scruffy. The (small) TV was situated in the corner of the room at right angles to the 2-seate sofa - so it was impossible to sit on the sofa to watch TV - unless you usually watch over your shoulder. From the bed it was about 12-15 feet (3.5-4.5m) away so that was not an option either. There was no fridge in the room. It was 01 for me as I was only staying overnight but you would not want to spend time in this room. On the positive side, the bed was very comfortable and clean. The bathroom was well appointed and clean, although the step up into the bath was difficult and I have long legs, so someone short would have difficulty. Overall, I feel it was very poor value for money.

01/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

Helpful staff but room rate poor value for money (even at discounted rate). Checkin took a long time. The key did not work properly. The room was tiny, decor was very tired and the shower pressure was hopeless

01/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

Poorly maintained and no value for money Certainly an old world hotel but the first room we got was very very small with peeling paint and a tiny tiny bathroom with the smallest sink I have ever seen. We asked to be moved and were then moved to a larger room but it had a really bad odour (like someone had been ill in the room and it had not been thoroughly cleaned afterwards) so we had to move again. Third time lucky we got an ok room that was not big enough for all the furniture in the room and we had trouble getting out the door. So not of four star quality at all! It was a very good location but not luxurious and such not command such high rates.

01/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

Overpriced-in need of refurb-poor management-poor breakfast-do not stay! Great location round corner from Russel St tube, exterior of hotel is stunning, hotel bar has character-thats all the good points! Reception staff arent friendly-need to swap the housekeeping staff with reception as they are what visitors want when you enter a hotel-polite and welcoming.Rooms need refurb-old style box tvs, poor reception, scuffed walls, dirty shower curtain+shower, peeling paintwork, shabby flower curtains and chairs, small, dingy, loud and there was part of a human nail in our bed-not ours!!...what was the £20 million refurb spent on? (make sure you specify refurb room-with view of gardens-away from air-con generator)Breakfast-10 min queue to get in, sweltering hot, nothing is fresh-all packets+cartons-limited choice, even though you paid for full english be prepared to pay another £8 should you want an omelette or order your eggs a different way-cheap and nasty.Lifts-x2 of you with bags is like a tin of sardines.Food+drink-way overpriced.Bar-is nice-though app its ok to serve warm wine and champagne if the fridge is broken?! oh and we saw a mouse! Dont expect concierge to be there to help wth bags unless you ask-they just stand there and watch.Dont expect anyone to speak even the basics of English in a hotel based in England-language barriers were hugely frustrating,possibly most disappointing hotel ever stayed in-dont waste your money-look further up near holborn which is just a 5min walk down the road!

01/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

weekend break Stayed at the Hotel Russell for 2 nights. We checked in at 10am thinking we would not get our room till later,what an unexpected surprise when the lady handed us the key.The room was lovely and clean, great comfy beds but cracked tile on the bathroom floor which we told reception about on our way out, what service, it was lifted and a new tile put in its place before we came back. Lovely breakfast, but best of all the staff were so friendly and nothing was a problem. Well Done. Would definitely stay again and would recomend this hotel.

01/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

fabulous tho the room was a little smaller than the hotel's standard double it was fine for me travelling solo and there was no compromise at all on quality

01/08/2010 12:00:00 AM

Great location and comfortable accommodation. Just a bit noisy though.

01/07/2011 12:00:00 AM

Lovely Room, Noisy Hotel Room good. First floor with single glazed windows make for a noisy night and early morning wake up from the bin men.

perfect for a weekend break The Russell hotel is in a perfect location for visiting London. We could easily walk or get the tube to all destinations we visited. The late breakfast was also a plus,if you need to relax and get up at your leisure. I would certainly book there again.

Business Trip My company had booked conference facilities. We went to lunch at 1:30 and there was very little available so ate out - very unimpressive. Accommodation was good, service okay.

A romantic weekend The location of the hotel is extremely convenient, literally just a two minute walk from Russel Square on the Picadilly line. First impressions of the exterior & interior (main stairway & dining room) leave a special glow. Above the third floor the hotel becomes plainer and the rooms although well maintained are a slight let down from the magnificence of the ground floor. Staff are extremely welcoming, courteous and cannot do enough to help.This was our second stay, we will definitely stay again and would recommend to friends.

01/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

Small but perfectly formed I must have traveled in an expensive week as this hotel was only £5 more than Ibis (who are they kidding?) yet the quality is different. Great little room, tidy, nice touches. But little mistakes make it just slightly less than perfect. Light switches that didn't work, a shower head that broke. These things happen but it's a sign that attention to detail needs to happen. I've breakfasted here before and can recommend it, along with really great customer service

01/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

Weekend break Imposing hotel that earns it's four stars. Very clean and tidy. Staff very pleasant. The room was a double but was a bit on the small side, probably designed for a single bed but they put a double in it, so not much room. We were offered an upgrade to a deluxe room with more space when checking in but for an extra £25 per night, we decided not to bother. No real hardship as it was just a base. The concierge service meant we could leave our luggage there once we checked out and go back for it later. Very grateful for that. We also got a £20 Harrods voucher thrown in. There's not much you can buy at Harrods for £20! But we got some nice choccies :-)

01/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

I booked a double room for my wife and myself. On arrival I found the bed very small. I took the matter up with reception who told me all the doubles were queen size. In fact the bed was only 4ft 6ins wide. We spent an uncomfortable night. The room No. was 418.

01/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

The Hotel Russell Experience We were very impressed with the beauty of the Hotel. The service was excellent and added extras fulfilled as promised. The hotel was immaculate, including our room. We were visiting London on business but would have liked to spend more time enjoying the relaxed hotel environment. The only improvement may be a flat screen tv in the room with more channels.Nevertheless I would rebook without hesitation.

01/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

A disappointing stay for a number of reasons.... The bed in my room was broken and when reported it wasn't fixed, i had to report it a second time and it still wasn't fixed. There were only two sockets in the bedroom for charging multiple phones, a laptop and using a hairdrier/straighteners. My credit card was charged when i was assured no money would be taken and i can't comment on the food as i missed breakfast on both mornings because i had to queue at reception to complain.

01/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

Brilliant for a weekend break Chose hotel as walking distance form Euston and easy access to central London, actually walked back to the hotel from the theatre, but you wouldn't have to as tube just around the corner. Upgraded our room on arrival for a saml extra charge and room was lovely. Unfortunately £20 Harrods voucher not available as quoted in package but hotel reimbursed us :)

01/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

An Old Grande Dame of London Good value hotel, ideally located for the Picadilly line (West end is 10 minutes on a tube, no changes)You can see that this once was a lovely hotel, however, it is now a little tired, and in need of a little love !The rooms are clean, and reasonably sized given that it is in london, but they are seriously in need of a lick of paint. We were offered the upgrade to a clu room, however, we were at a function, and only need somewhere to lay our heads

01/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

Comfortable room, everything worked, some noise from street. Great character hotel with truly magnificant staircase - has lifts too.

01/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

Value for money close to Central London Good value for central London. Reception a bit slow and did try to charge over and above original quotation. Room very much bigger (and better) than a previous stay, just one week earlier, for little cost difference.

01/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

Enjoy your stay in this grand old lady, slightly wrinkled but oh so gracious. Loved the large, oak-panelled bar, the entrance hall with mosaic floor and grand staircase. The staff were most attentive and the room was stylish, clean and comfortable.

01/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

enjoying London

01/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

Hotel very impressive, size of room less so. When I opened the door I though I'd walked straight into the bathroom.

01/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

Ok hotel Good rate, room decor a bit dated but bathroom fine. Only complaint is that a £10 tray charge was added for breakfast in my room - while I read the small print on the order card, I missed the charge.

01/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

Disappointed I have stayed at this hotel on previous occasions and have been happy. On this occasion I chose to upgrade my room. I wanted to move to a higher floor to avoid traffic noise. I also thought that by upgrading my room, my stay would be that much nicer.The television in the room was old and the picture was really poor. The shower was also virtually non existent, really poor for a hotel of this calibre. The hospitality tray was also poor in my opinion. Very little choice with no hot chocolate sachets and no biscuits.Unfortunately, by the time you notice the shower is poor it is too late to doing anything about it! I left with the feeling that I had been ripped off on this occasion. I have had more for les: when staying in other hotels in London.

Stayed over Memorial Day weekend and while it was extremely busy, the hotel staff was friendly and accommodating. The two pools were great, although the 21+ pool had quite the wait. Hotel club stayed open until 4am and had different theme nights. Overall, an excellent stay compared to some of the mid-upper hotels on the strip.

My husband went for a little R&R and we got that in this sexy hotel! It was sleek, modern, and gorgeous! We are a younger couple and the vibe was hip and contemporary. We had an easy check in and the staff was friendly. The location is in the city center, right next door to the Bellagio and across from Paris and PH. We went up and down the strip, ducked into a few hotels and nothing compared to the strip's latest hotel the Cosmopolitan. We even spent a few hours exploring the hotel and looking at all the modern art. Our room was clean and roomy. The decor was detailed and unique. The only minor problem we had was the mini bar charges that came from the fridge door being closed too hard. The sensors thought we had a drink but with a quick call to the hotel, it was cleared up. We will be going back and staying at the Cosmopolitan!

4th time to Vegas. Nicest hotel by far. Very modern, very chic. Great room, great staff, great vibe. Cosmo is going to be the only destination for us from here on out.	RA

The Cosmo is amazing! The decor is very modern, they upgraded our room because we arrived early and our original terrace studio was still occupied, fastest alcohol service while gambling of any casino we visited. Wicked Spoon buffet is awesome, and way better than the Bellagios. This hotel definitely caters to the 21-35 crowd, or those young at heart. We will never stay anywhere else in Vegas!	RA

Location was central. Hotel new and looks it. Room magnificent. Seems they were built for a time-share apartment. However, service was not great. Room missing slippers, ; had a burned out bulb, one tv did not work. Movies never worked, froze in midst. Did not furnish a folio on tv screen as promised. However it was worth it. Other hotels were more humanized.	RA

We stayed for 4 nights during mid-week. We checked in around 11pm and were upgraded to a terrace suite, room 3933. The room had a full kitchen, 2 large bathrooms and even a washer and dryer, which actually came in handy! Most of our time in the room was spent on the balcony overlooking the Bellagio fountains. This has to be the best view in the hotel. The hotel is brilliantly designed. Be sure to check out all the art!	RA

Great service, beautiful casino, wonderful views. Rooms were AMAZING! Drinks very tasty, nice pool options. Wicked Spoon buffet was delicious. Beds in room were the most comfortable I've ever slept in. Like sleeping in the clouds. Hotel also let us do a 2 hour later check out free of charge.	RA

One on the newer hotels on the strip. Fantastic room (1 bedroom terrace). Very friendly staff, 3 pools, lots of food and bar options. Placed nicely on the strip with easy walking to other casinos. Pretty young crowd (20s 30s) Lots of night life in the hotel. Pretty busy in the casino till early AM. A really great place. I do not recommend children, but again this is Vegas... you shouldn't be bringing children anyway !!	RA

My husband and I went to the Cosmopolitan for our honeymoon and were there from Sunday until Thursday. We requested a premium view with a view of the Bellagio fountains and the guy checking us in gave it to us immediately and was very friendly, along with the rest of the staff. We walked around just taking pictures, ate at the Wicked Spoon (which was awesome), played a few slots, and hung out in the room when we weren't walking down the strip going to shows or seeing other sights. The room was amazing. My husband and I agreed that neither of us have stayed at a better hotel. When we requested extra washcloths or towels, it was brought within 10 minutes with friendly service instead of a like a lot of places where the staff can't stand to be there, the ladies that cleaned our room were some of the nicest people we met in Las Vegas, and people whose job was not to help with luggage offered to help anyway. We couldn't have asked for a better honeymoon thanks to the hotel. It was close to a lot of the places we went to see shows (both free and paid for) and right across from a huge mall with a Starbucks and Fat Tuesdays in it. Whenever we went somewhere too far to walk, there was someone to help us get a cab within a few minutes.	RA

Great hotel. We spent most of our time relaxing by the pool (which was VERY nice) and gambling. Drinks at the pool were a little pricey but I brought in some of my own drinks and did not get hassled. the buffet is AMAZING and worth every penny!	RA

The hotel was great. We saw a couple of shows next door to our hotel at Plant Hollywood. Everything was within walking distance of our hotel Bellagio, Paris, Flamingo and a few more. we had the best room, we could see the Bellagio Fountain show every night from our window.	RA

Had 2 rooms for 4 friends. 1 room wasn't available when we checked in and downgraded our friends the first night. Dropped off clothes for pressing and paid "rush" fee but they completely missed that window by about 3-4 hours late and still charged the extra fee. Had to call down and ask for room to be cleaned after housekeeping didn't bother. Second day they at least stopped at our room, but didn't do much cleaning at all (left dry cleaning wrappers laying on the floor by the door). But the kicker is security/safety. Our friend's room was broken in to while we were gone to a show and his safe emptied. Security was quick to respond and investigate, but proactive is more important than reactive when it comes to people bypassing 2 levels of the hotel's security and stealing your money. I wouldn't feel safe staying there again even if they had gotten the rest of it right. One positive: The restaurants were excellent.	RA
27/05/2011 12:00:00 AM	Suj
The hotel was very nice. It was not a themed hotel such as some of the others in the area however we had a great experience there. The Wicked Spoon restaurant was nice, quiet, and the food was very good. Check in and check out was vairy quick and parking was free. The only thing we had trouble with was the TV. They are newer IP TV's and the response from the remote was slow, but I don't watch that much so it wasn't that big of a deal.	RA

Our hotel room was amazinggggg. I love how there are mirrors everywhere and made the room look so much bigger and comfortable. Upgraded to wrap-around suite. Room was extremely wonderful. Everything was new. Fully modern. 2 50" TVs, living rm, 2 full baths and outstanding service. Check in and check out fast and easy. View of pool area and surrounding city. Parking easy in underground area. Located next to Bellagio and near center of the strip. This place is a happening place on Fri, Sat and Sun for the 20-40 crowd. Bring ear plugs depending how far away from music.	RA

My gf and another couple went for our birthdays. We were astonished as soon as we got out of the shuttle. The lobby area was beautiful. The staff was very polite. We had a one bedroom terrace suite with a bellagio fountain view. One thing that got me upset was that you had to purchase a cord to play your ipod thru the tv. Not just a regular white cord but an audio cord. So you're better off bringing your own or just bringing your own dock which in my opinion would be better. Another problem was that our safe didn't work and then we got it fixed the next morning. A couple days later it just stopped working completely. Another issue was with the remote control. It's like the sensor on it or the tv wasn't in sync or something. To sum it all up this place is a great place to stay. You might feel like you don't even need to go to another hotel if this isn't your first time in vegas. I've been to Mandalay bay and planet hollywood and this one beats them both.	RA

The hotel was wonderful. Right in the middle of Vegas. Even from walking into the place you knew it was something special-LCD pillars in the check in area with changing images. The only fault we had with the hotel was that the shower gels and shampoos were not replaced every day. Not a major issue but we had to ring room service twice to get that sorted. Staff otherwise were extremely helpful, even to someone who had been travelling for 26 hours and turned up with a back pack and wasn't thinking straight. Would definitely recommend this hotel. The breakfast buffet was amazing and the Marquee nightclub was really something I had not experienced before.	RA

The Cosmopolitan has raised the bar for any hotel on the strip. First, we saw several negative reviews regarding check-in, and so we were prepared for the worst; however, we experienced no issues whatsoever. In fact, we got upgraded to phenomenal suites without asking. We traveled with 2 other couples that were also upgraded to high-end suites, each of us with a different type of room, one better than the next...JUST FANTASTIC! I have been to Las Vegas 4 times prior and none of my stays were as wonderful as what I experienced in this hotel. The location couldn't be better - right in the middle of the strip and walking distance to anywhere you'd want to go (north end, south end). In regards to the food - we tried DQCG and the Wicked Spoon. Both had fantastic food, I highly recommend the pizza (if you can find it), and they were very reasonably priced. The Wicked Spoon has one of the best tasting buffets on the Strip, but the service was less than stellar. The Valet service was well organized, speedy, and had a friendly staff. In general, I cannot say enough positive things about this hotel. I LOVED the chandelier bar, which is a sight to see in itself! This hotel was so well done with every t crossed and i dotted - my compliments and "hats off" to the architects and designers.	RA

We visited every where we could at the new Cosmopoliti/casino. The East wing is were we stayed and it was the BEST. The best view, the rooms were great. I love how everything runs from the TV remote. Very cool. The Wicked spoon was SUPER. Henry's was very good too. We hung out at the chandler lounge, bond and Vesper. This hotel gets 5 stars from myself and my family. We were celebrating my daughters 21st birthday and she had the time of her life. The one bedroom suite with terrace is a MUST to have. Great Job Cosmo and I haven't stayed at the same hotel since going to vegas twice a year but now I will.	RA

I've stayed in most of the 4 star or higher hotel/ casinos in Vegas and although the cosmopolitan is beautiful and has great restaurants and pools aswell as gambling, we had several issues with room keys not working and not being able to valet when we came back at night. I realize hotels get busy or full but aren't your customers that payed to stay at your hotel more important then the people that showed up to party at your club for a few hours??? I've never been told I can't valet by any other place in Vegas even on new years we always were able to valet and if you've been to Vegas for new years you know how packed every place is. When I asked customer service about it the lady was rude and said what can you do if it's full then it's full, she didn't understand my point that patrons staying in the hotel should be priority over nightclub patrons that are only there for a few hours	RA

We were a couple on our honeymoon, first time in Vegas. We stayed in a suite on the 44th floor with a view to the strip (The Bellagio fountains). The suite was amazing and the view was breathtaking. We had almost everything we needed in the hotel including one of the best clubs in Vegas these days (The Marquee). The Cosmo is amazing! The decor is very modern, they upgraded our room because we arrived early and our original terrace studio was still occupied, fastest alcohol service while gambling of any casino we visited. Wicked Spoon buffett is awesome, and way better than the Bellagios. This hotel definitely caters to the 21-35 crowd, or those young at heart. We will never stay anywhere else in Vegas!	RA

We stayed for 4 nights during mid-week. We checked in around 11pm and were upgraded to a terrace suite, room 3933. The room had a full kitchen, 2 large bathrooms and even a washer and dryer, which actually came in handy! Most of our time in the room was spent on the balcony overlooking the Bellagio fountains. One on the newer hotels on the strip. Fantastic room (1 bedroom terrace). Very friendly staff, 3 pools, lots of food and bar options. Placed nicely on the strip with easy waking to other casinos. Pretty young crowd (20s 30s) Lots of night life in the hotel. Pretty busy in the casino til early AM. A really great place. My husband and I went to the Cosmopolitan for our honeymoon and were there from Sunday until Thursday. We requested a premium view with a view of the Bellagio fountains and the guy checking us in gave it to us immediately and was very friendly, along with the rest of the staff. We walked around just taking pictures, ate at the Wicked Spoon (which was awesome), played a few slots, and hung out in the room when we weren't walking down the strip going to shows or seeing other sights. The room was amazing. My husband and I agreed that neither of us have stayed at a better hotel. When we requested extra washcloths or towels, it was brought within 10 minutes with friendly service instead of a like a lot of places where the staff can't stand to be there, the ladies that cleaned our room were some of the nicest people we met in Las Vegas, and people whose job was not to help with luggage offered to help anyway. We couldn't have asked for a better honeymoon thanks to the hotel. It was close to a lot of the places we went to see shows (both free and paid for) and right across from a huge mall with a Starbucks and Fat Tuesdays in it. Whenever we went somewhere too far to walk, there was someone to help us get a cab within a few minutes.	RA

Had 2 rooms for 4 friends. 1 room wasn't available when we checked in and downgraded our friends the first night. Dropped off clothes for pressing and paid "rush" fee but they completely missed that window by about 3-4 hours late and still charged the extra fee. Had to call down and ask for room to be cleaned after housekeeping didn't bother. Second day they at least stopped at our room, but didn't do much cleaning at all (left dry cleaning wrappers laying on the floor by the door). But the kicker is security/safety. Our friend's room was broken in to while we were gone to a show and his safe emptied. Security was quick to respond and investigate, but proactive is more important than reactive when it comes to people bypassing 2 levels of the hotel's security and stealing your money. I wouldn't feel safe staying there again even if they had gotten the rest of it right. One positive: The restaurants were excellent.	RA

The hotel was very nice. It was not a themed hotel such as some of the others in the area however we had a great experience there. The Wicked Spoon restaurant was nice, quiet, and the food was very good. Check in and check out was vairy quick and parking was free. The only thing we had trouble with was the TV. They are newer IP TV's and the response from the remote was slow, but I don't watch that much so it wasn't that big of a deal.	RA

This was our first time in vegas and we loved it! It was my wife and I for our anniversary. During our time there we visted all the major hotels down the strip but we stayed at the Cosmo. At of all the hotels we loved The Cosmopolitan the most. It suited us being a younger couple. It is not the biggest of hotels but the decor was amazing. Very modern, elegant, and comfortable. This was our second Vegas vacation. Our first was spent at Red Rock Resort. We had a fabulous time and was planning to return when we noticed The Cosmopolitan was now open. Since we prefer a "W Hotel"-like experience, we booked a trip. It was great! We're not gamblers so we really enjoyed all the other amenities to their fullest. Our first day, we booked the spa for 80 min sessions. Great list of services and facilities. We stayed well beyond our massages. The fitness center was also better than expected. Even had a boxing studio. However, it was $12/day to use it. We would've paid that if we had gone to a gym off-property but considering this isnt a cheap hotel, I was a bit put-off by having to pay for gym-use. Restaurants were really good. They should be — famous chefs behind each one. Personal fav was Joses Andres JALEO tapas-style eatery. The best gin+tonic, tapas and interior design. Sadly, Blue Ribbon Sushi was not available during our stay. MILOS also very very good. COMME CA by David Myers featured the best steak tartar I've tasted. Portions quite generous. A couple of hiccups... Shortage of pool chairs over the Easter weekend. Literally, the 3 pools were overrun. Not a happy moment when you're ready to chill by the pool! Our complaint was handled quite professionally. Staff graciously offered a $50 credit for the inconvenience and the pool staff started "carding" [rm keys] those entering the pool to make sure only hotel guests had access. Housekeeping was prompt but kept forgetting our toilet paper... lol. The Orbits perk of $50 credit and free bottle of wine was much appreciated. Gave us a free lunch the first day! I highly recommend. Clean, comfortable, "boutique" in feel [or as much as a strip hotel can be]. Casino felt fresh + smoke-free. Staff was incredibly friendly and accomodating

I went to Vegas with my best friend for my birthday celebration and this was not the first time. But the difference now was that we wanted to have a relaxing weekend and we did. We arrived and the concierge was able to get us a table at STK last minutes. Their strawberry martini was delish, so was their peach bellini. After an amazing dinner we just went back to the hotel room. The next morning we walked to the Fashion Show mall because the shops at Cosmo don't open until 10am. It was a nice walk. On the way back we hit Bouchon at the Venetian for a light lunch sitting by the pool and enjoying the sun - that's the way to do it. A cab ride back to the hotel and we were enjoying the pool in no time. I would say the Oasis pool is more for 40+ and kids. I enjoyed it OK. The Marquee Day Club was rldc expensive. If you want to sit on a chair, get ready to pay $500 and if you want one of the beds, $1500 min. consumption - insane!! The music the pay is all electronic so we just left. We went to their third pool, Boulevard. My favorite of all three. Good music, they have arcade games, ping pong tables and more fun stuff to do. There a cool DJ playing top 40 music and the servers are making sure you get your drinks and food. We hit the gym ... really nice but you have to pay $12 to access unless you are having spa treatments that day. the machines are nice and new. There is only one water dispenser (what?!), a class room and a small boxing ring. The Spa is really nice: steam room, cold steam room, sauna, large jacuzzi. My massage was really good. Marquee club was fun. I preferred the Hip Hip level than the electronic/main/pool level. Both DJs were great. After Marquee - pretty rad! and there is a restaurant around the corner from Chandelier that opens until 3am or 24 hrs, can remember. I had a 2 beds room and it was really spacious, super hip and had a beautiful view. What I didn't like: Why didn't get our room cleaned until 5:30pm one day and it took 3 calls to the operator to have security to check on our neighbors because they were super loud and smoking *%&^ during the entire night. Overall, it was a great stay with great restaurants, fun pool, ok shops and nice clubs

What a great first experience to Las Vegas. We were upgraded to a preferred view on our second day due to it being our 20th anniversary. The staff was both professional and personable. We ventured out for one dinner during our 4 night stay and decided that the hotel's restaurants couldn't be beat. We especially liked the Tapas and room service. The rooms were so spacious and well appointed. The art on the walls to the books were so provocative and interesting. A very urban sophisticated experience.

A beautiful hotel. It was for the young and trendy, and some of the staff made you feel that way. (We are in our 40s.) Even though the room had a coffee maker you had to purchase the coffee. This hotel had just opened and it seemed as if it was being operated by kids, hopefully they will get the hang of things soon. The cab drivers said many of their clients had the same comments. We probably would not stay there again.

My girlfriend and I just stayed at the Cosmopolitan last weekend for her birthday, what a score! We plan on staying there again when we go, hands down! This is the newest hotel on the strip so check it out before it becomes a worn out newer hotel like Luxor or Mandalay Bay, Bellagio or Ceasars. Guys whether you are looking for a place for a guys night out place to stay or a great place that your woman will totally dig, the Cosmo got it. Everything you see or do there is interactive. From the moment you check in to the lobby, your eyes will be kept busy from all the art or sparkling/attractive bars they have on display. Furniture and chandeliers are classy, staff is friendly. TIP: Upgrade to a 1 bedroom suite with a view. We checked in early in the morning and politely asked the front desk agent if we could have a view facing the northside on the east tower! We had to wait about 2 1/2 hrs for the room to be ready while we ate at the Wicked Spoon and checked out the hotel/pool areas. (The Wicked Spoon buffet is alright if you go for breakfast. The options weren't huge, the food was decent, but sort of bland. The Bellagio had a better buffet.) But waiting for the room proved to be worth it, we were given a room right below the penthouses on the 69th floor looking down on the beautiful Bellagio Water show and view of the Paris on the strip! Awesome! The rooms felt plush, loungeish feel. Other reviews said the room controls were hard to learn/operate, but all it takes is a little fiddling around to figure it out. The flat screen tv has options to listen to xm radio, control temp and lights in the room. Dont touch the ferns in the mini bar or on top of the counter if you dont intend to buy them!!! They are on a sensor that will automatically charge you if not placed back within 30 seconds. Yes, even the coffee machine. We found this out, disrupted it and never got charged, but stay a heads up! We loved the walk in shower and Japanese hot soaking tub to sweat out and detox after a long day/night. The king size bed felt like sleeping on a cloud. The pool is area was a great place to kick it. Each pool is unique. The 4th floor pool views the strip and has pool tables, ping pong and foosle ball to keep it fun while soaking up the sun. The Bamboo pool on the 14th floor had lots of pretty people tanning and enjoying themselves. The hotel itself has these cool little retro modern areas decked out with 60's furniture and pool tables to chill at. Just dont forget to bring your camera! If you are going to see a show during your stay, book your tickets early for the Cirque du Soleil Beatles LOVE show at the Mirage, amazing! It will keep you entertained and your eyes moving! This hotel is how Vegas should be enjoyed! Just the right amount of wrong ;)

Our room was amazing. Just like it showed in the pictures. Although, their communication needs improvement. We did not receive the correct room with a view that we booked. We were told we would receive an upgrade the next day, but after many calls and being told the room was still being worked on we were finally told that the room was unavailable. We were compensated with a $50 in room credit. Being that this hotel opened in December 2010 it is understandable that it is still working out all the kinks. Otherwise, was very pleased with my stay. The room was clean, and had a fridge and dishwasher. Also, not many hotels in Vegas have balconies which is something the Cosmopolitan offered in their rooms. Next time I come to Vegas I will most likely stay here again. But this time I now know how to go about getting the room/view I want.

We went to vegas to get married and have a honeymoon. The Cosmo was the BEST - literally every single employee was helpful and totally went out of there way to help. They gave us a upgrade to a terrace suite, which was the most comfortable hotel casino room i ever stayed in. Check in was very very smooth. The hotel housekeeping steamed my wedding dress for me!! Amazing The makeup artist in the salon came in extra early for me on my wedding day and was a total professional...i can go on and on . We plan on going back next year and I am sure will stay at the Cosmo again!

Upon checking in to the hotel, my husband ran to the restroom and I was not allowed to check in without him...so once he got there to sign everything, we were told no rooms were available (it was about 1:30 p.m.). We had a few friends with us, so we went down to their registration desk, and were immediately checked in. Our room didn't have a view of the Bellagio, but all in all it was a wonderful room. The minibar is a sensor bar, so if you even lift something to put one of your own drinks in its place, you're charged. (However, they did take these charges off at the end of our stay when we told them we didn't consume anything). Room was very nice, with great view, both televisions worked, no problems with water pressure/hot water, etc. Room was cleaned every day, with no problem and no interruption when we were there. Hotel has EVERYTHING you need. There was plenty of things to do, so we never really left the hotel until the last night when we went to the Stratosphere. Marquee was nice and fun, but was elbow to elbow and took awhile to get a drink. Daybeds by pool decreased in price as you got closer to the day you wanted to use it. First it was $500, with $250 bar credit, then $300, with $250 bar credit, and the day we wanted it, we only paid $75, with a $50 bar credit. Everyone was friendly enough. Not overly friendly like at the Ritz...but not rude at all. At the end of our stay, we found out there was a stabbing at the hotel the first day we were there, which was kept very quiet because we only learned about it from the cab driver. Drink prices were outrageous, with house vodka and soda being $9.00 and a Corona can (the only beer you can get delivered at the pool) was $6.50. When we went to check out, we found approx. $350 of charges on our room that weren't ours (places we had never been), and they took the charges off until they further investigated. They said if the signatures don't match, my card wouldn't be charged. Since we didn't sign for anything at those particular stores, I assume this will be taken care of with no problem. The crowd was mostly young 20s...but no one got out of hand. I rarely saw a child. Location of the hotel in relation to other things was great - it is basically in the middle of everything. Food at Holsteins was AWESOME, as was Wicked Spoon ($22 breakfast/lunch buffet with free alcoholic drink). Never gambled at the hotel, so can't tell you much about that. All in all, a great experience. Cab rides in Vegas are expensive, as are drinks. But, we expected a bit of a price hike...although this was more expensive than in Hawaii. There is an ABC store across from the hotel where we stocked up on normal priced liquor and wine and took our own drinks to the pool after the first day. All in all, a good hotel, good location, not so good prices on drinks, but I was not disappointed in the overall value.

I stayed with a friend for a 4 day July 4th vacation. The hotel is very modern and chic, and buzzing with energy. I used all 3 pools, ate at 4 restaurants and went to the Marquis nightclub. I was very impressed with the staff and the common areas of the hotel. I was a little disappointed with the quality and cleanliness of my room, but it was still nice. It just wasn't on par with the rest of the hotel, otherwise I would have given 5 stars.

This hotel is the newest on the strip and is nothing short of top class. It has awesome places to eat, shop, see, and gamble. A word of advise though. This is not really a kid friendly or older then 50 hotel. It is a place to see and be seen and it attracts "people of that crowd". So if that is not your scene, then this is not the place for you.

This was our first time in vegas and we loved it! It was my wife and I for our anniversary. During our time there we visted all the major hotels downt the strip but we stayed at the Cosmo. At of all the hotels we loved The Cosmopolitan the most. It suited us being a younger couple. It is not the biggest of hotels but the decor was amazing. Very modern, elegant, and comfortable. The room was amazing with a great view. Diffently would not hesitate to stay there again next vist!

01/05/2011 12:00:00 AM

I joined family at the Cosmopolitan. What a wonderful vacation! The room had a view of the fountains at Bellagio. Loved the room, bath, and bakony. I can't wait to return next year!

29/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

This was our second Vegas vacation. Our first was spent at Red Rock Resort. We had a fabulous time and was planning to return when we noticed The Cosmopolitan was now open. Since we prefer a "W Hotel"-like experience, we booked a trip. It was great! We're not gamblers so we really enjoyed all the other amenities to their fullest. Our first day, we booked the spa for 80 min sessions. Great list of services and facilities. We stayed well beyond our massages. The fitness center was also better than expected. Even had a boxing studio. However, it was $12/day to use it. We would've paid that if we had gone to a gym off-property but considering this isnt a cheap hotel, I was a bit put-off by having to pay for gym-use. Restaurants were really good. They should be — famous chefs behind each one. Personal fav was Joses Andres JALEO tapas-style eatery. The best gin+tonic, tapas and interior design. Sadly, Blue Ribbon Sushi was not available during our stay. MILOS also very very good. COMME CA by David Myers featured the best steak tartar I've tasted. Portions quite generous. A couple of hiccups... Shortage of pool chairs over the Easter weekend. Literally, the 3 pools were overrun. Not a happy moment when you're ready to chill by the pool! Our complaint was handled quite professionally. Staff graciously offered a $50 credit for the inconvenience and the pool staff started "carding" [rm key] those entering the pool to make sure only hotel guests had access. Housekeeping was prompt but kept forgetting our toilet paper... lol. The Orbits perk of $50 credit and free bottle of wine was much appreciated. Gave us a free lunch the first day! I highly recommend. Clean, comfortable, "boutique" in feel [or as much as a strip hotel can be]. Casino felt fresh + smoke-free. Staff was incredibly friendly and accomodating

28/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

I went to Vegas with my best friend for my birthday celebration and this was not the first time. But the difference now was that we wanted to have a relaxing weekend and we did. We arrived and the concierge was able to get us a table at STK last minutes. Their strawberry martini was delish, so was their peach bellini. After an amazing dinner we just went back to the hotel room. The next morning we walked to the Fashion Show mall because the shops at Cosmo don't open until 10am. It was a nice walk. On the way back we hit Bouchon at the Venetian for a light lunch sitting by the pool and enjoying the sun - that's the way to do it. A cab ride back to the hotel and we were enjoying the pool in no time. I would say the Oasis pool is more for 40+ and kids. I enjoyed it OK. The Marquee Day Club was ridc expensive. If you want to sit on a chair, get ready to pay $500 and if you want one of the beds, $1500 min. consumption - insane!! The music the pay is all electronic so we just left. We went to their third pool, Boulevard. My favorite of all three. Good music, they have arcade games, ping pong tables and more fun stuff to do. There a cool DJ playing top 40 music and the servers are making sure you get your drinks and food. We hit the gym ... really nice but you have to pay $12 to access unless you are having spa treatments that day. the machines are nice and new. There is only one water dispenser (what?!), a class room and a small boxing ring. The Spa is really nice: steam room, cold steam room, sauna, large jacuzzi. My massage was really good. Marquee club was fun. I preferred the Hip Hip level than the electronic/main/pool level. Both DJs were great. After Marquee we went to The Chandelier - pretty rad! and there is a restaurant around the corner from Chandelier that opens until 3am or 24 hrs, can remember. I had a 2 beds room and it was really spacious, super hip and had a beautiful view. What I didn't like: Why didn't get our room cleaned until 5:30pm one day and it took 3 calls to the operator to have security to check on our neighbors because they were super loud and smoking *%&^ during the entire night. Overall, it was a great stay with great restaurants, fun pool, ok shops and nice clubs

28/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

Beautiful hotel with modern rooms. Our only complaint was if you want to go to sleep before 2 a.m. then ask for a room away from the night club with the pool, the bass penetrates several floors above the open night club.

27/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

Could not have been better, this is the place to stay!!!

27/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

The Cosmopolitan is Vegas's newest hotel and probably the most unique considering it has balconies with at least half of the rooms. Upgrade to the Premium View. It should give you a spectacular view of the Bellagio Fountain. We were in the East Tower on the 26th floor. Had great sightlines and were able to listen to the music from our balcony. One thing to note: Confirm, Confirm, Confirm before you arrive that you will have this view. We ran into a bit of a problem the first night, but were able to work it out with the hotel. If you like a quieter pool environment, I strongly recommend the Bamboo Pool. Nice pool and peaceful environment. The Boulevard Pool reminded me more of MTV Spring Break, 15 minutes was more than enough. The Henry restaurant has great burgers and the truffle tator tots are wonderful!

26/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

The Cosmopolitan is top notch! Great room, great view, great service! We stayed in the Terrance Suite which had a FABULOUS view of the strip. Pools were awesome! There was plenty to do within the hotel and a great location to venture down the strip. Highly recommend staying at Cosmo--a very nice, high-end hotel.

26/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

We stayed at The Cosmopolitan Of Las Vegas and it is a truly amazing Hotel in the perfect location on the strip! It really doesn't get any better...The room views were amazing, the staff were very friendly and accomadating, and the amenities were impressive (restaurants, pools and spa!!) We went with two other couples and had a overall fantastic vacation!

25/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

This is an absolutely spectacular hotel. The rooms are set up like a studio condo, not your normal hotel room. There is a distinct living room with a flat screen TV. There is a kitchenette with refrigerator, dishwasher and sink. There is a nice deep deck the width of the unit. The bathroom is huge with a "Japanese" soaking tube. The hotel was designed by Aquitectonica, a firm that specializes in high rise residential. The room is similar to the rooms at the Tempo in Miami. Pay extra to get a north facing room- it is a million dollar view of the Bellagio Fountains.

25/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

absolutely perfect in all respects. if the room rate stays reasonable i will always stay there on my return trips.

25/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

We went to the Grand Canyon a must see. The weather was perfect we went the end of April. The cosmopolitan was so perfect we could not have asked for a nicer place to stay.

23/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

There's nothing like a balcony in Las Vegas. Room was very nice. One odd thing was that for the size of the mini-suite there was only one telephone. There are still start up issues. Housekeeping was spotty at best. The sitting room TV suddenly wouldn't work which necessitated a call to tech services. They did respond in 10 minutes. I was only able to connect to the internet once. When I called tech services I was told they had system problems & were working on it. In 5 days, it was never fixed. Wth work to do, this was more than inconvenient. Casino personnel are very well trained, but the rest of the staff needs help. Scarpetta is a great experience. The food & service were excellent.

23/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

In the heart of the Strip, very elegant, top shelf, only issue was housekeeping never showed up and did not clean our room in 4 nights, contacted housekeeping twice they finally sent towels up at 11pm on the last night,

	Stayed over Memorial Day weekend and while it was extremely busy, the hotel staff was friendly and accommodating. The two pools were great, although the 21+ pool had quite the wait. Hotel club stayed open until 4am and had different theme nights. Overall, an excellent stay compared to some of the mid-upper hotels on the strip.	RA

	My husband went for a little R&R and we got that in this sexy hotel! It was sleek, modern, and gorgeous! We are a younger couple and the vibe was hip and contemporary. We had an easy check in and the staff was friendly. The location is in the city center, right next door to the Bellagio and across from Paris and PH. We went up and down the strip, ducked into a few hotels and nothing compared to the strips latest hotel the Cosmopolitan. We even spent a few hours exploring the hotel and looking at all the modern art. Our room was clean and roomy.The decor was detailed and unique. The only minor problem we had was the mini bar charges that came from the fridge door being closed too hard. The sensors thought we had a drink but with a quick call to the hotel, it was cleared up. We will be going back and staying at the Cosmopolitan!	RA

	What a great first experience to Las Vegas. We were upgraded to a preferred view on our second day due to it being our 20th anniversary. The staff was both professional and personable. We ventured out for one dinner during our 4 night stay and decided that the hotel's restaurants couldn't be beat. We especially liked the Tapas and room service. The rooms were so spacious and well appointed. The art on the walls to the books were so provocative and interesting. A very urban sophisticated experience.	RA

	A beautiful hotel. It was for the young and trendy, and some of the staff made you feel that way. (We are in our 40s.) Even though the room had a coffee maker you had to purchase the coffee. This hotel had just opened and it seemed as if it was being operated by kids, hopefully they will get the hang of things soon. The cab drivers said many of their clients had the same comments. 	My girlfriend and I just stayed at the Cosmopolitan last weekend for her birthday, what a score! We plan on staying there again when we go, hands down! This is the newest hotel on the strip so check it out before it becomes a worn out newer hotel like Luxor or Mandalay Bay, Bellagio or Caesars. Guys whether you are looking for a place for a guys night out place to stay or a great place that your woman will totally dig, the Cosmos got it. Everything you see or do there is interactive. From the moment you check in to the lobby, your eyes will be kept busy from all the art or sparkling/attractive bars they have on display. Furniture and chandeliers are classy, staff is friendly. TIP: Upgrade to a 1 bedroom suite with a view. We checked in early in the morning and politely asked the front desk agent if we could have a view facing the northside on the east tower! We had to wait about 2 1/2 hrs for the room to be ready while we ate at the Wicked Spoon and checked out the hotel/pool areas. (The Wicked Spoon buffet is alright if you go for breakfast. The options werent huge, the food was decent, but sort of bland. The Bellagio had a better buffet.) But waiting for the room proved to be worth it, we were given a room right below the penthouses on the 69th floor looking down on the beautiful Bellagio Water show and view of the Paris on the strip! Awesome! The rooms felt plush, loungish feel. Other reviews said the room controls were hard to learn/operate, but all it takes is a little fiddling around to figure it out. The flat screen tv has options to listen to xm radio, control temp and lights in the room. Dont touch the items in the mini bar or on top of the counter if you dont intend to buy them!!! They are on a sensor that will automatically charge you if not placed back within 30 seconds. Yes, even the coffee machine. We found this out, disputed it and never got charged, but just a heads up! We loved the walk in shower and Japanese hot soaking tub to sweat out and detox after a long day/night. The king size bed felt like sleeping on a cloud. The pool is area was a great place to kick it. Each pool is unique. The 4th floor pool views the strip and has pool tables, ping pong and foose ball to keep it fun while soaking up the sun. The Bamboo pool on the 14th floor had lots of pretty people tanning and enjoying themselves. The hotel itself has these cool little retro modern areas decked out with 60's furniture and pool tables to chill at. Just dont forget to bring your camera! If you are going to see a show during your stay, book your tickets early for the Cirque du Soleil Beatles LOVE show at the Mirage, amazing! It will keep you entertained and your eyes moving! This hotel is how Vegas should be enjoyed! Just the right amount of wrong ;)	RA

	Our room was amazing. Just like it showed in the pictures. Although, their communication needs improvement. We did not receive the correct room with a view that we booked. We were told we would receive an upgrade the next day, but after many calls and being told the room was still being worked on we were finally told that the room was unavailable. We were compensated with a $50 in room credit. Being that this hotel opened in December 2010 it is understandable that it is still working out all the kinks. Otherwise, was very pleased with my stay. The room was clean, and had a fridge and dishwasher. Also, not many hotels in Vegas have balconies which is something the Cosmopolitan offered in their rooms. Next time I come to Vegas I will most likely stay here again. But this time I now know how to go about getting the room/view I want.	RA

	We went to vegas to get married and have a honeymoon. The Cosmo was the BEST - literally every single employee was helpful and totally went out of there way to help. They gave us a upgrade to a terrace suite, which was the most comfortable hotel casino room i ever stayed in. Check in was very very smooth. The hotel housekeeping steamed my wedding dress for me!! Amazing The makeup artist in the salon came in extra early for me on my wedding day and was a total professional...i can go on and on . We plan on going back next year and I am sure will stay at the Cosmo again!	RA the resort is really up with the technology. very spacious and the balcony was very relaxing it gave us the chance to check the weather before leaving out for the day and to sit out at night to catch the night air. it was good having two flat screen tv's because we were able to watch different programs at the same time. the jet tub was awesome!!!! I plan to visit again.

location was good, seen 3 shows, very entertaining, but Hotel's service was not the best, that's from the restaurants to the front desk.

We stayed at The Cosmopolitan in Vegas. The hotel was beautiful and super clean. The chandelier that is 3 stories high was amazing. Very cool to have dinner inside of it. All in all it was a great place to stay and located centrally on the strip next to The Bellagio. It was a little spendy but within walking distance to cheaper hotels. Great vacation for our first trip together:)

Nice hotel, good finishes in the room. Stayed on the 33rd floor in a wraparound suite. Only problem was the noise until 5AM from Marquee. Even 33 floors up, I could not fall asleep due to the noise

23/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

This hotel was awesome. It was very clean, spacious and the staff was super friendly and accommodating to all our needs and concerns. The club inside the hotel, The Marquee, was one of the best I've ever been to in Vegas. Spoons, the hotel's buffet, was also a nice experience. Their brunch was well worth the price. I've visited Vegas several times and thought that the City Center's Aria could not be beat, but the Cosmopolitan did!

19/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

Being a person that travels to Vegas fairly often, I've stayed at many of the hotels on the strip. Most of the time I would book with Bellagio because of the room quality, comfort, cleanliness, service, and overall location. Hearing about the Cosmopolitan and knowing that it just opened in December, I figured that for the next 4 nights I would give it a try. I can honestly say that if given a choice, I will never stay at Bellagio again! The Cosmopolitan is smaller than most other hotels on the strip but in my opinion is far more superior! The rooms are extremely clean, beautifully designed and come with a large living space. The beds are more comfortable than the one I have at home! Balconies give the guest a great view of the strip and little room features make the stay much more pleasant! I'm typically not the easiest person to please at a hotel but I could not find any flaws in th Cosmopolitan! Great Hotel with a very friendly staff!

19/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

Since they run out of regular premium view rooms they gave me a huge corner room with a huge terrace facing the Bellagio fountains. Beautiful hotel, with amazing restaurants and very nice pool. I have been to several hotels in Vegas and this one exceeded all expectations.

18/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

#1 The hotel was nice over all but none of the rooms were ready on time. I was added to a waiting list to receive a room once housekeeping was done. I was 20th on the list. Didn't get a room till almost 5pm. #2 I checked in on Saturday. Although the Cosmo is advertised as a high end hotel the staff is far from it. I did not get clean towels or the room cleaned till Tuesday morning. I was told the hotel was under staffed. The front desk clerk named [...] did not care and had a bad attitude. #3 I booked 2 one bedroom suites [...]. I received 1 one bedroom suite and another one room (not what I booked). The second room was lower end and I was told that was what they had. #4 The one bedroom suite had a tube that was broken. The water stopper was broken and did not hold water in the tub. Did not complain past housekeeping as no one did anything about it. #5 The other rooms air conditioning was not functioning properly. The temp read 68F on setting but room temp never went below 72F. #6 Repair personnel had a scheduled repair in our room and did not wait until we left the room to install a mirror. I am not sure why they came to install the mirror in the first place. Either way they could have waited till we left or the room was unbooked. #7 If anyone ranks this hotel high then its for the looks and the fact its new. I was not impressed. Overpriced. Overbooked. Understaffed. Too many college kids work her who act like its not their problem.

17/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

Hotel was new was had tons of things onsite alone. From Vesper bar at next to check in to the 3 story in side a chandelier Chandelier bar--Holsteins burgers and shakes--and a great breakfast buffet at Wicked Soon(dinner there at buffett is really just for gourmet and seafood lovers).Boulevard pool overlooking strip was amazing--and had a great non stop totally different music track. 2 other pools open april 1. Spa facility and fitness area also topnotch! All that--and fun gaming too!Plus rooms were beautiful--and we had a balcony overlooking strip.

17/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

Great Hotel....There was a problem at check-in which was quickly solved....The room view was outstanding. Having two tvs was also a plus during the NCAA tournament. The tables were equally enjoyable. I will definitely be coming back soon.

16/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

fantastic service, absolutely stunning hotel. beautiful views and gorgeous decor, no other hotel can compare.

15/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

Not only a gorgeous hotel, but the very best buffet. "Wicked spoon" is located at the second floor of the hotel and not well indicated. We travel a lot and it was by far the best food and service we ever had in any buffet. Food is absolutely delicious.

11/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

Cosmopolitan - Has potential, but not what I'd expected. Missing towels (need 3 calls and a trip to the desk to get towels) TV not working. Couldn't honor a request for adjoining rooms. With that said, it does have the potential to get a 5 star rating, just not now. I'll chalk it up to startup pains as it a new hotel. maybe I'll revisit in a year or two to see if it gets any better (I'd suspect so)

10/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

The Cosmopolitan exceeded our expectation. The staff was friendly the hotel's amenities were perfect. It had the feel of a boutique hotel. We were so impressed we joined their Identity Club. We've stayed in LV many times and the Cosmopolitan is "our" hotel now.

09/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

It starts with a positive upbeat attitude throughout, by ALL the employees and staff. How often can anyone say that? The rooms are spacious, especially the bathroom complex(a big plus). They have at least 4 great restaurants that we ate at. One has a chef from the food network(Chopped). He came out in the dining area and chatted with us and others. The only low point was a mix up with housekeeping not getting to our room one day (otherwise 5 stars)--but they made it right. I will be back here on my next visit to Vegas. Great Place.

05/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

Very impressed with the feel of the Cosmopolitan. Much better than the theme hotels of Las Vegas. Staying at the very center of the strip is very convenient too. The views from our wrap around terrace balcony were amazing but make sure you work some magic and stay in the west tower facing the Bellagio fountains for the best sights. Keep in mind that everyone requests those rooms so tip the check in counter if the view is important to you. I would definitely recommend this hotel to anyone. Very modern, great staff, nice nightclub. Casino is a bit smaller than most hotels but the Bellagio and Aria are next door. Have fun!

03/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

Amazing, gorgues hotel!

03/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

[...] Checked in at 7pm for a business meeting the next morning. There was heavy construction under window all night long. As soon I got to the room I heard the noise and asked for another room. They said the hotel was full and if I went anywhere else [...]wouldn't give me back my money. [...]

01/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

The hotel is beautiful. The casino is open, airey and very accommodating. The ceilings are high and the smoke does not seem as bad as other casino's. The room was like a studio apartment, complete with shower and soaking tub. The balcony overlooked the strip along with a breathtaking view of the mountain region. All the shows we saw were within walking distance. The Mirage, Ceasar's the Flamingo. It is located right across the street from the Bellagio. My package price for the two of us was $2000. That was airfare, 5 nights at the hotel and a rental car. I was more than pleased that I found the Cosmopolitan.

28/02/2011 12:00:00 AM

I arrived on a Thursday night and had absolutely no wait at the registration desk. The staff was super friendly and I was immediately upgraded to a one bedroom terrace suite overlooking the Bellagio Hotel's Dancing Water Show and the strip. Great view. The Chandelier Bar is amazing and one of kind. There is something for everyone to see and a great location for high and low end shopping and eating.

28/02/2011 12:00:00 AM

I've stayed at suites at the VDara and MGM Signature and I must say Cosmopolitan takes the cake. It's the best value on the strip if you want a luxurious stay. Me and the wolfpack (my buddies) booked a terrace one bedroom suite and upgraded to the wraparound terrace suite which is AMAZING. The perfect view of the Bellagio fountains and awesome view of the strip helped make it amazing...only hotel on the strip where you have a balcony view. If Cosmopolitan was open at the time the guys in the Hangover movie would have picked the wraparound terrace suite and made their wolfpack toast on the balcony. If I could I would have given it 4 1/2 stars. 5 stars means "perfect" and it's extremely difficult to make a trip experience "perfect". The only reasons why I gave it 4 stars was because there two towels hanging in the bathroom when we first checked in that were wrinkled, and one of them had a stain that looked like red soda. That tells us those two towels weren't changed out which is rare for 3+ star any hotel. The fridge had some soda stains inside, and the handle was sticky. There were also some crumbs on the couch, so I give cleanliness 4 out of 5 stars. Also we weren't warned that the items on the counter (such as binoculars/chocolates/mints) had a sensor on them. We were able to get those fees waived as we didn't actually use the items, just picked them up. I also wish that the wraparound terrace suites or even the regular terrace suites had queen sofa beds, but apparently only the more economical terrace one bedroom suites have that option. Aside from the above paragraph you can tell a lot of thought was put into Cosmopolitan to make it a perfect experience. Great restaurants (loved the Wicked Spoon buffet), great casino (dealers were fun and helpful), awesome interior design, best nightclub on the strip (Marquee), great location on the strip. I was very impressed with the wraparound terrace suite. The impression is made the second you walk in the art hung up on the wall, the hello/goodbye buttons, washer/dryer. You can control the lights/climate through the TV, the rooms are state of the art! Huge kitchen/living room, huge bathroom in the bedroom with large shower and tub. They didn't leave out anything! Well except for bathroom counter space which I personally don't care for but I know my girlfriend would. When I go to Vegas, Cosmopolitan is where I'll be staying, no question about it.

28/02/2011 12:00:00 AM

The Cosmopolitan Of Las Vegas was one of the best experience with the beautiful hotel and great views

21/02/2011 12:00:00 AM

The hotel was very new and exciting. My complaint was that my friends and i were promised adjoining roomswe were there celebrating our birthday. It was very inconvenient being put in two separate towers.it took us 10 to 15 minutes running back and forth up and down the elevators i was on the 36 floor tower 2 and they were on the 21 floor in tower 1. the security was great except when trying to get from tower 1 to twer 2 and need room keys to get into another room and tower than your own. V ery very disappointing. It was a very large hotel for them to tell us they could'nt find two rooms in the same tower

Beautiful rooms and hotel. The dealers in the casino were super friendly, cocktail waitresses were speedy and friendly. Checking in was not pleasant, the first person we spoke with was unhelpful and wouldn't let us check into the room we had already paid for. 4 hours later we were finally able to talk to someone who would help us and we were right into our room. When we walked into our room, the TV was on and the shower and sinks were wet. Not cool. We took a night off and ordered a movie. First our TV wouldn't show picture, after we got maintenance up to the room it seemed okay. Once he left the picture started breaking up and we gave up on the movie idea. Room service was great, the food was amazing. We were given a free bottle of champagne too. The problem with it was that they never came back to pick up the giant table they left in our room, even after calling 3 times. When we checked out, it was still in the middle of the room, 2 days later.		RA

Excellent service, my new favorite hotel on The Strip. I will definitely return, the balcony view, jet tub and large shower all fit to make for an awesome Vegas stay.		RA
11/02/2011 12:00:00 AM		Ro Las:
The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas was a unique hotel to stay in and experience. Right in the middle of the strip your options are unlimited. The view from the Balcony is one of the best kept secrets of this hotel. Looking out the balcony at the Bellagio Water Fountains and the Paris Eiffel Tower was breath-taking and so romantic. Vegas itself has a lot to offer but the Cosmopolitan is unique within itself. The pool is styled as if you're on a cabana in the Caribbean and not in the desert. The hotel's design is modern, glamorous, sleek, artsy and very trendy. It does not have a theme as most Vegas Hotels have -- it is a step above. The staff is not only professional and friendly but go the extra step to make sure they help you with whatever your needs are. Every inch of this hotel is SPOTLESS -- the cleanest hotel room I have ever stayed in. The spa is something that must be experienced. I was truly taken to the most relaxed state and treated like a princess. The restaurants in the hotel are AMAZING! There is not 1 bad choice to make -- everything was high quality and the all you can eat buffet was not just superb but was exceptional. The buffet in the Cosmopolitan does not only serve dinner - they serve breakfast and lunch. We happened to get there late during breakfast and got to experience both breakfast and lunch.....so yummy! I think anyone planning to take a trip to Vegas should check out the Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas if they are looking for a unique and exciting experience. I look forward to my next stay at the Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas!		RA

Modern. Clean. Kettle in room for coffee. Not really a problem because shopping mall was across the road.

It was nice being on the ocean and there was a flamenco fair that just happened to be going on at plaza next to the hotel which was fun and a chance to mingle with average people. Small things but annoying. The hotel was really understaffed which made both for long lines and problems difficult to resolve and there are always problems. For example, there were only one set of towels in each room even though we had couples in two rooms. This keep happening no matter how many times I mentioned it. The free spa was a mess for the entire time we stayed. The hot tubs were cold, the steam room worked off and on, etc. No one on the staff wanted to with it. If you are addicted to coffee it is difficult to buy a cup of coffee unless you are willing to spend $$$$. Most hotels of this sort are trying to get as much cash out of you as possible but they could use those small coffee makers in the r that are everywhere in the U.S. hotels.
01/04/2011 12:00:00 AM
Very few things. It was nicely decorated but that's about it! Horrible location, firstly. More importantly, TERRIBLE service!! The worst I have EVER seen, and I've stayed in both hotels with more stars and with fewer, including hostels and motels. The staff members were grumpy, unhelpful, rude, and I There was no bell boy when we checked in so we had to personally ask someone at the front desk to bring our 4 suitcases in. He huffed and puffed and groaned before, during, and after he finally helped us. The bartender was rude, lied to there being a cocktail menu, and didn't smile or say more than 2 words to us. We had to call room service to bring food to us at the pool, and got an extra charge for having to call room service. Hot tubs were cold, outside empty and wrot staff. I would never again stay at this hotel, even if you paid me.

The hotel although on a very busy road had good double glazing! The restaurant had magnificent views, the food was delicious. The swimming pool was an oasis in a busy resort and very clean. The staff were pleasant and helpful. An extreme good base for a holiday in Sorrento. It is a hotel I would definitely return to.

we stayed at the Hotel Grand Flora in a POOL/SEA view room ,lovely hotel have stayed several times over the last 10 yrs , well run hotel ,clean and very friendly staff , lovely food ,the weather slightly overcast some days but lovely and w: Altogether a great holiday except for the delays to our flights both ways with Thomson,the outgoing delay being 10.5 hrs and poor infrequent information regarding such . May 20-27
01/06/2011 12:00:00 AM
My sister and I stayed in Sorrento at Grand Hotel Flora, it has a good location, the food and staff were very good.I had read a review about the noise from the petrol station next door, in fact there were 2 (opposite and next door) the noise from these and the Corso Italia did not bother us. Our balcony overlooked these and so we did not use it. We would have preferred a pool view. We enjoyed the Thomson Welcome meeting which included a walk around Sorrento, very use and lots of freebies on the way.The Foreigners Club and the restaurant where cannelloni was invented were part of the tour and well worth a return visit to eat there.As we were half board we ordered a packed lunch from the hotel and ate nights. We had day trips to Pompei and Vesuvius, went on the Amalfi Drive and went to Capri. - Paid extra for 2 boat trips and a ride on a cable car. Although we thought the drinks were expensive the food was not. It was all well worth the money. Celebrity spotting, their villas and boats, were free added extra's. This is not a holiday for the unfit, after 3 days of climbing steps and mountains we felt the strain but this did not stop us plodding on to make sure we didn't miss a tit The weather was mostly good, it did rain on a couple of occasions but only for about half an hour each time. All in all a brilliant holiday.
20/05/2011 12:00:00 AM
Although the hotel could not be faulted for friendliness and hospitality, I was disappointed with some aspects, why were there not hot drinks facilities in the room ? The evening meals were large portions but slapdash in appearance, and bread was awful, paying for a 4* hotel and only being able to eat toast and jam !!! There was not coffee offered with evening meals and the vending machine coffee at breakfast was undrinkable. This is the country of coffee and icecream !!! But having said all this it did not mar the holiday, just disappointed. I was impressed with the cleanliness and efficiency and would recommend the hotel, especially as it was off the tourist track and we met some wonderful locals (having to go to coffee!!!)

22/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

Hotel in good location although about 10 minutes walk from the centre. Good choice of food available and the waiters were very friendly. The reception staff were efficient but not overly friendly. Accommodation was fine, although probably noisy if you have a room at the front as the hotel is on a busy main thoroughfare (we had a room at the back). Bedrooms would have benefited from having better and brighter lighting (to read by) and comfortable seating. Plenty to see & do in the Sorrento area - Pompeii, Vesuvius, Herculaneum, Capri, Amalfi coast, to name a few. Organised trips quite pricey - you can do it yourself fairly easily by local bus/ferry - but the tour guides are very knowledgeable and entertaining. Our rep was very helpful and made us feel welcome. All in all, a great holiday.

12/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

Hotel Grand Flora provides an excellent range of Italian foods with a lot of choice and very generous helpings. All the staff seem anxious to please and make your stay as comfortable as possible. The pool area at the rear of the hotel is large kept very clean, and it is possible to order drinks and snacks there throughout the day (although all one really needs is drinks, rather than more food!) We found the Thomson rep, Stacy, to be very helpful, enthusiastic and a real source of information. We used several of the Thomson organised outings - the Amalfi Coast tour is well worth taking. The excursion to Pompeii and Herculaneum with guide was most interesting, although it can be done cheaper by public transport. I want to expend the effort of doing it this way. We very much enjoyed buying a ferry ticket to Corfu and then using the fenicular railway, local bus and then chair lift to the highest point on the island most interesting. One advantage of Corfu that parts of it are traffic-free, which is a delight.

24/08/2010 12:00:00 AM

We stayed for a week at the Grand Flora in July and had a lovely time. We upgraded our room to a pool view and it was worth it - the view of the Bay of Naples was breathtaking. We did several excursions - 2 through the rep to Mt Vesuvius Pompeii one day and Capri and Ana Capri. The guides were both very good and it was worth it to get their services. Mt Vesuvius was a little disappointing. We thoroughly enjoyed Pompeii (despite the heat). Capri was beautiful, particularly the boat trip and the chair lift to Ana Capri. However it was very crowded on the fenicular back down and there was some pushing by some very rude tourists! We went on the local bus to Amalfi - considerably cheaper than with the rep, but it was a push to get on the bus when it arrived in Sorrento despite us waiting patiently in a queue! The food in the hotel was excellent and we particularly enjoyed the Gala Evening - the staff in the restaurant were always very polite and friendly. The pool was kept exceptionally clean - we didn't spend long periods around the pool as there was so much to see and do in the area but it would have been nice to have had some umbrellas around the sun beds. Overall we thoroughly enjoyed our stay in the Hotel Flora and Sorrento itself. It is a nice hotel and good value for money compared to other hotels in the area. We would definitely like to come back again one day.

18/08/2010 12:00:00 AM

This was my families 3rd visit to this resort and we will be going back next year. This hotel was great, but they were little things I did not like. Paying for the sunbeds around the pool (5) euro a day which worked out expensive for 3 of us. The food at the hotel was good apart from the gala night, you got no choice of food it was a set menu so my husband did not eat at all that night. The air conditioning is very poor and controlled by reception.

17/08/2010 12:00:00 AM

We stayed at the Hotel Grand Flora for 1 week in July and had a wonderful time. We paid to upgrade our room on arrival and it was worth it as we had a beautiful view over the Bay of Naples. All the staff in the hotel were very polite. The food was excellent and we recommend the Gala Evening which is held on a Wed eve. We went to Amalfi on the public bus - considerably cheaper than going with the tour company - the views along the way are amazing but the bus was very crowded and there was an almighty surge to get on the bus when it arrived at the bus station in Sorrento. The other tours were through the rep - we went to Mt Vesuvius and Pompeii one day and Capri and Ana Capri the other time. Both were great and well worth paying the extra to get their service. Capri was beautiful but very crowded, particularly on the return on the fenicular - lots of pushing from some very rude foreign tourists! Overall we had a wonderful stay in Sorrento and would definitely return to the Hotel Flora. The location is ideal and it is a nice gentle stroll in to town. The only thing that lets the area down is the beaches - no golden sand. But the pool at the hotel is kept exceptionally clean so there is no need to go to the beach. The week flew by very quickly as there is so much to see and do in the area - would definitely recommend it to anyone looking for a nice hotel which is good value for money.

29/07/2010 12:00:00 AM

The hotel food was magnificent - the waiters were exceptionally accommodating and were always ready to vary what was on the menu to help the fussy eaters like me! - I cannot rate this too highly. The hotel staff were all exceptionally pleasant and friendly and the rooms were as detailed on the web site so no unexpected surprises. The pool was clean and although the lounge sun beds had a price the deck chairs didn't and were sufficiently comfortable. The pool was never overcrowded and was big enough to enjoy a proper swim. Stacy the Thomson rep was excellent - very helpful but not intrusive and two of the 3 tours we booked on were excellent. Will definitely book a Thomson holiday again.

19/07/2010 12:00:00 AM

We loved Sorrento and the Hotel Flora. First impressions of the Hotel bedrooms and bathrooms are off putting as a four star hotel but they are clean and fresh towels are given each day. The pool is huge and cleaned every evening. The food at the hotel is excellent with a huge choice for both starter and main meals plus the chef's special. If you want a starter as a main course then nothing is a problem. The restaurant is well run with the staff dressed formally for dinner and breakfast. The staff throughout the hotel are polite and helpful and nothing is too much trouble. The hotel is 10 minutes walk to the main square in Sorrento which makes it an ideal place to go for a walk after dinner. Pompeii is a must see as is the Amalfi coast and Ana Capri. Take the cable chairs up to Ana Capri!!! All in all we had a fantastic holiday and if you can get over the beds and showers in the hotel, we would totally recommend the Hotel Flora as a place to stay in Sorrento.

I was on Hilton Head Island between 6/1 and 6/4. Our room had roaches, and I mean roaches (big ones and baby ones). The decor was suitable. The floor was damp. The staff was helpful overall, except for a couple less than accommodated personnel. They did allow us to check in early. Check-out process was less than acceptable. In a good central location on the island for the price. The continental breakfast consisted of a coffee machine (run of the mill vending machine coffee pre-packaged Sara Lee Danishes of a variety, and a juice machine, all nestled in the corner of the office on a countertop. Nothing special about it but it's free. The office was clean, with nice simple decor. I would not stay here again because of the roaches.

This was my second time in Naxos and Aghia Prokopios particularly. I really enjoy Aghia Prokopios as it has a lot to offer and is the closest beach town to Chora. Colosseo Star is a very nice facility. Our room was spacious, bright, air conditioned and clean. While the bathroom was clean, it was cramped and there was no shower and not even a real bathtub. There was a shower head attached to a flexible hose and you were supposed to sit in the small tub (seat built-in) and wash yourself. It was difficult to not spray water everywhere...including your towel and the toilet paper. Bathing here was a real drawback. When I booked the hotel, I knew that it was not right in town. There were two routes into Prokopios, either past the drying lakes (which in the wet season would not be possible) and then along the beach or up the dirt road and then down the paved road (no pedestrian walkway here) and into town. Breakfast was also supposed to be available...instead we received some kind of pastry each morning (if they saw us). This was not too much of a burden as we went to my favorite cafe in town. The staff was very friendly and I can find no fault with them. There are several Colosseo facilities and one night on our way back to the Star, we were waiting for the bus when George went by in the Colosseo van, he picked us up and took us back to the star. The Star also has a very nice pool. While I would not recommend the Star, I would say that it is a nice place overall, but for location and the bath.

Great apartments. Cleaned daily and with nice pool and kids play area. Beach, restaurants and shops are about five minutes walk. What made this place fantastic was the service. Free collection and drop off from the port by George followed by amazing hospitality from his wife Maria. On about the fifth day she presented us with a free cake. Another one came along two days later and then it was every day until our final day when we had drinks, lunch, cakes and even a local candle as a gift. Her English isn't great, but she is the nicest hotel owner I have ever met. Naxos itself is a lovely island. The beaches are fantastic, the water clear and calm. There is a shipwreck you can snorkel over in Prokopios and a lovely restaurant at the far end of the beach. Aghia Ana is 10 minutes walk away and has tavernas directly on the beach. I would definitely recommend Naxos and the Colosseo to anyone with kids. We were tempted by the properties on the beach, but the bars and restaurants make it a bit noisier (this is by no means a party island though) and being just a couple of hundred metres back meant that cicadas were the noisiest thing. The only downside is that the quickest way to the beach and town is across a causeway over salt lakes. This is perfectly OK, it's dry and solid and many cars drive across, but it is a bit "odd". You can go via road instead which takes a couple of minutes longer, but the salt lakes actually became quite fascinating and we almost always went this way. If you need Internet, it's free, but you need a laptop with Windows as the wireless wouldn't work on phones (one's that normally use wi-fi) as you need to logon to a provider.

Loved our stay at the Colosseo, the service was excellent - every afternoon we were brought free snacks and drinks as we lounged around the pool. We also had an issue where we lost our passports on the ferry (left a bag on there in the mad rush to get off) - George & his wife were fantastic in helping us locate it - they rang the ferry, the police, and drove us down to the ferry dock & waited with us for an hour til the ferry came in (late) and we could get our bag back. It's just a short walk to a nice part of the beach, and to town. You have to walk through an area with salt pools, which some people said were smelly but we didn't find them offensive, and we were there in hot & sunny July. The place is awesome for kids - we took our 2&1/2 yr old daughter, but there were other families there with younger and older kids. The pool is warm with loads of toys for children, and the playground is great. Also really liked having grass surrounding the pool - didn't have to worry about my daughter slipping on wet tile. Recommend you stay here!

17/09/2011 12:00:00 AM

It's hard to go wrong with a Hilton. They seem to stand for a solid dependability that's very comforting and reassuring. But there's a different side to Hilton in the new Millenium; a funkier and more cutting edge design-led style that's quite u 1980s and 1990s image. I've stayed in a couple of their 'revamped' hotels but if you want to really see how great they can be, you need one of their new-builds. A place where everything is as it was designed to be and not where they've i something older and tried to 'funk it up' a bit. The perfect example of this (if you can't be bothered to go to Kuala Lumpur to their Asian flagship hotel) is to check out the Hilton in Canary Wharf. Canary Wharf is not like 'real London so if yc looking for the old world charms of the city and your mental image is based on scenes from Many Poppins and Oliver Twist, don't go to Canary Wharf. This is London's area of ultra-modern high-rise living and working, built on what were on areas of the docklands that were so unattractive that I'm sure I once read that Oliver Stone used some of the derelict areas as sets in one of his Vietnam films. Today it's all shiny glass, metal and concrete with one of the most spectacular Underground stations in London. I thought it would be easy to find. It's called Hilton Canary Wharf so I'd go to Canary Wharf station, step out of the station, look up and spot the big blue H. I got it wrong. I'd rather underestimated the imps quite so many tall buildings in one space and despite a good hunt, I couldn't find the hotel. So I rang my colleague who'd arrived just before me, she put the receptionist on and the receptionist tried to explain where to go. It should have be but London hotels seem to pick their receptionists for something other than their language skills. After asking the third time I just pointed myself in roughly the right direction and went on the hunt. My mistake, it turned out, was going to th Underground station. I needed South Quay station which is actually linked directly to the hotel. When I finally arrived at the hotel, a bit hot and bothered after dragging my case round the docklands, I was really impressed by what I found. R was very classy with a large light marble counter and a wall of rusty slates as a backdrop. The lifts were just across the lobby from the reception and despite being a tall building, there were always enough lifts available quickly. It can be rea frustrating if you stay in a multi-storey and have to wait five minutes for a lift to come. Passing by the lifts, there's some nice long leather banquettes and some wooden tables with strange cubic stools to sit on. The rusty slate wall decorat continues along through this area until you reach the Cinnamon restaurant and bar where there's lots of bright limegreen glass, leather seating and glass café tables. Breakfast is served in the Cinnamon every morning and the spread is secr none. Don't forget to ask if you want a cappuccino or any other special coffee and the staff rush off and get them for you. I headed up to my room expecting that since I was in London it would be small and poky. Nothing could be further I truth. My room was enormous. I suspected at the time that maybe we'd negotiated upgrades since we had so many people booked in, but when I checked afterwards these really were the standard rooms. The bed was enormous and dre crisp white cotton with a cosy bedspread. The curtains were a strange sort of crushed velvet. There was a very funky arm chair with a glass coffee table, a massive work desk with plenty of space and a choice of wired or wireless internet, big flat-screen television and lots of rather stylish lamps and other lighting. The minibar was stocked with overpriced goodies, the bathroom was stylish and spotlessly clean and the Crabtree and Evelyn toiletries were immediately identified ; enough to take home. I was staying at the hotel as part of a large group using it as a base for going to the Excel exhibition centre. Getting around London can be a nightmare and we were all going to be on our feet all day long so we didn't be in central London with a long journey to get to Excel every day. Taxis took about 15 minutes and the Docklands Light Railway could get us there in a similar time, though not necessarily much more cheaply if we put 4 people in each tax first night we found plenty of options for eating out around Canary Wharf and didn't need to venture too far away and on the second night I took advantage of the proximity of the DLR station to pop into town and meet a friend for dinner. someone who grew up in a small town I still find being in London on my own at night a bit intimidating but I wasn't worried to travel alone around the hotel. The hotel had a lot of facilities that I didn't need and didn't use including a gym, a sj business centre. On my first day we met up in one of the meeting rooms near the business centre. The room was fine, the audio visuals all worked but the buffet was a bit disappointing and we really struggled to get any hot coffee. I would normally think of staying in Canary Wharf and I couldn't afford to stay at the Hilton on its standard prices but they do often run off-peak deals that are very affordable and I'd consider it as a serious option if I could get a really good deal.

01/07/2011 12:00:00 AM

This hotel is modest but very clean and fully suited our purposes. Rooms are small & the layout can be 'quirky' due to its conversion from a townhouse but very clean. Location was absolutley terrific - right across from Hyde Park, close to tube, and very easy to find our way to tourist sites. Very reasonably priced and was not advertised as anything that it was not. This is excellent value for the money & not paying top price for a hotel filled with amenities that one never use was very welcome. Other guests were tourists from Germany, Denmark, Canada, & other parts of UK. We were on our way to Turkey with a 4 day stopover to see London. It fit the bill perfectly & I would recommend it to my own family members for future trips to London.

01/05/2011 12:00:00 AM

We've been welcomed by a staff member who wasn't really bothered to do more than write down our details and give us the room key. The huuuuuge downtrend was that we DESPERATELY NEEDED the internet access as demonstrated on venera's website regarding this hotel, but "the lobby pc is broken, no wireless access" was the answer we got. So, we paid extra 5 pounds for 24h use of the BTfon network which we could find anywhere in town. The room wasn't in great condition, but that was no problem for me, it's not my home and I didn't stay long. Other than that, it was a clean, big and comfortable room.

01/05/2011 12:00:00 AM

Nice and friendly hotel and staff. Very god breakfast as was included. Near to buses and underground, (5 minutes walk)

01/05/2011 12:00:00 AM

Nice spacious rooms. Clean and friendly staff. But the Breakfast is very basic. Toast and Marmalade only. We ha to make our Instant-Coffee by ourself. Breakfast-Room to small for so many Guests.

01/05/2011 12:00:00 AM

01/04/2011 12:00:00 AM

A ok hotel to stay in, but there was some misunderstanding with the breakfast. The man in reception did not give the message to the kitchen that we had ordered english breakfast. The bathroom could have been bigger.

01/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

Free Internet Wifi would be great

01/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

Quiet room and good location. Appropriate prices.

01/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

Good location and rooms. However, bad treatment received by the reception girl, wanted to charge us a room that had canceled, even with the document that justified the cancellation in time and also have it on your computer to cancel .. The situation was unprecedented: at 22h at the reception, with children without sleep for over an hour of discussion, until we decided it was not a valid interlocutor and not attending to any argument. The next day, the manager, saw that everything we said was correct and the discussion was minimal ... It was an unfortunate situation ... Care you not want to charge a room more ...

01/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

Rooms were small but clean, decor could definitely do with a freshen up, it's been a while since the walls saw a coat of paint. The area where the hotel is located was great, 5 minutes walk from Lancaster Gate tube station. Felt very safe walking around at night. Would definitely use again when staying in central London. Hotel allows you to store your luggage when you check out which was a definite plus for me. Check in (11.00) and check out (12.00) times were very good.

01/03/2011 12:00:00 AM

This was the second stay at the hotel, and we have already plans for coming back next year. If I have to complain of something, the room this time was sometimes cold. We were freezing sometimes.

01/02/2011 12:00:00 AM

The only thing wrong is the lift that was broken. We didn't have problem because our room was in the lobby of the hotel. The location was excellent, near underground and Hyde park. Very Good

01/02/2011 12:00:00 AM

Hotel near by hyde park, close to an underground station. Calm. Excellent for visiting London. However, the lift did not work while the stairway is very steep. The service is just sufficient. Taking in account the cheap price this is a good hotel

01/02/2011 12:00:00 AM

Great hotel. Very clean room. Excellent localization, near Lancaster station underground and very close Hyde Park. In the next trip, to London, certainly I'd be at this hotel.

01/08/2010 12:00:00 AM

An excellent hotel for a family with children: space, bed, welcoming, breakfast; underground just to 2 minutes and a very quiet area with Hyde Park

01/08/2010 12:00:00 AM

It was the first time I went to London and stayed in a hotel. I was a little bit afraid, but I leaned on the positive comments of the website and they didn't disappoint me. The main quality I enjoyed in the hotel was that it was very clean. They gave us a big room. It was a little noisy, but it wasn't their fault. Above our room, there was a family with 2 or three little children, so, it couldn't be different! The only thing I have to criticize, is the breakfast, it could be better I recommend this hotel. It's very central. I'll certainly stay in it the next time I'll be in London

01/01/2011 12:00:00 AM

Very good location and nice neighbourhood. Unfortunately, I was given a room in the basement and had to suffer the noise from some kind of engine or compressor located in the courtyard. Would certainly stay there again providing I was given another room.

01/01/2011 12:00:00 AM

Good but noise in the room during the night

01/01/2011 12:00:00 AM

We booked a room for three, but the third bed was a foldable one, which is not very comfortable for a young adult! The view was poor in our room. The paintings are "ripping" in the bathroom. Adaptator is needed to recharge your equipment. Continental breakfast, ok. The closest underground station is Lancaster Gate and not Paddington. Staff is very helpful.

01/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

Very satisfied with the overall service. Good value for money. I suggest that the hotel management indicates clearly the way from Lancaster Gate Underground station to the hotel since on arrival I had a hard time to find the hotel.

01/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

I stayed for one night and found the price/ quality ratio excellent. The only detail is the heating did not work in the bathroom but again, the room was indeed a very good deal, in a nice and handy location.

01/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

Good location for central of London for tube and buses and also for walks through Hyde Park. Spacious Room but very small and not clean bathroom Hotel needs restyling

01/12/2010 12:00:00 AM

Change hotel even spending a bit more.

01/11/2010 12:00:00 AM

A basic, clean hotel in a very convenient location. Very good value for the price of the room, will stay there again.

01/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

This is a nice hotel. Very nice price and excellent service. Clean, quiet and central location.

01/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

Excellent location, close to the Tube (500m approx) and to Notting Hill. I stayed just one night and was given a very big room with 3 beds, 1 sofa, fridge. It didn't have air conditioning but it wasn't actually needed. Nice stay. I would consider this hotel again for my next stay.

01/10/2010 12:00:00 AM

The best of all was the size of the room and that it had a safe

01/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

Second time in. Got bigger room this time that was great!

01/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

We booked a triple room and were surprised how large this room was, which included two double beds and one single bed. Even a fridge was there. The breakfast was a bit poor, no choice of ham or sausage. But related to the price it was

01/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

Very quiet room; the only source of noise was the fridge. As I did not need it, and as it was empty anyway, I switched it off for the night, and so I had an absolutely quiet room and a wonderful sleep. All other things were ok. Other users complained about the too small breakfast room, but I don't understand this complaint at all; for a hotel of this size, a breakfast room with 36 seats (I counted them) seems absolutely appropriate.

01/09/2010 12:00:00 AM

We stayed very well in a three people room; we'll come in the same hotel next travel to London.

01/08/2010 12:00:00 AM

Excellent, well appointed room. Plenty of space, loads of towels, great drinks making facilities. The breakfast was filling and the staff made you feel very welcome. The hotel's location is quiet and safe but its only 5 mins walk from the tube that goes direct to the West End.

25/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

I have rated it acceptable because of the reception area, a nice breakfast restaurant and an OK bar. The room itself was run down (has probably not been renovated since the hotel was built - example the keys on the TV remote control are longer readable so I could not operate the TV) and smelled very badly of tobacco smoke when I arrived in spite of it being a no smoking floor (why does the chamber maid not open a window?). So 2 points for the room in spite of a nice view was a standard room, and I know that they have better ones. Value for money - I do not know, it's London where you normally do not get your money's worth. Recommend to others? - maybe and only subject to making sure that they know what they get.

25/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

I'd recommend this hotel. 4 star accommodation with good views of the Tower Bridge or St. Kathrine's Dock. Had a room on 5th floor, looking over the Thames and Tower bridge. Room was really nice, very clean and had very comfortable Bathrobes and slippers were provided. The hotel thought of all the things you might need whilst staying e.g. an umbrella in your room, iron, ironing board, tea & coffee making facilities, complimentary water, ice buckets (ice available on different floors), toiletries (soap, shower gel, shampoo, conditioner and body lotion). The receptionists are very friendly and nothing was too much trouble for them. The bar overlooks the river and has a good atmosphere, they provide peanuts etc drinks. Breakfast is buffet, but with everything you could want to eat. Went down at 08:00 no problems getting a table. Will be going back soon.

25/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

Would recommend

25/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

Also das Hotel ist an einer idealen Stelle für ein kurzes Wochenende. Insbesondere für "Neu"londoner. Eine Reihe von schönen Plätzen liegt in der unmittelbaren Umgebung. Wir hatten ein Zimmer mit Blick über die Towerbridge. Super! Das Personal war nett und für die Klasse zuvorkommend. Da das Towerhotel auch als Tagungshotel und beliebter Anlaufpunkt für grössere Gruppen fungiert, kann das Essen aber zu einer clubähnlichen Angelegenheit werden. Der einzig echte Downer: Die haben schon bessere Zeiten gesehen. Im Zuge der Renovierung sollte das aber besser werden. Insbesondere der Blick über den Fluss macht dieses Hotel aber zu einer guten Wahl. Zum Preis: Ich hätte mich sicherlich geärgert, wenn ich den Preis hätte zahlen müssen. Da gibt es dann schon noch gute Alternativen. Die meisten Anbieter schliessen das Frühstück aus dem Angebot aus. Dieser hier hatte deshalb das beste Angebot, mit Frühstück. Wir würden zu den gleichen Konditionen wieder kommen.

25/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

Efficient and speedy check-in and check-out (considering large size of hotel). Pleasant rooms - excellent position except that public transport not very convenient. Poor experience at dinner in Carvery Restaurant which appeared tired - joints dry, puddings stinky. Close attention by management would help - definitely suggest eating elsewhere - many good restaurants within walking distance.

25/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

the views from the hotel room were magnificent. the rooms were comfortable. food was really good. staff were friendly and helpful. good value for money. would recommend this hotel to others.

25/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

Stayed here many times before so I knew what I was getting. Fabulous location, very quiet rooms, I had booked a basic single and was given a large double. Breakfast good like all Thistle hotels. Staff very pleasant and helpful. Ideal for tourists to stay because it's close to my work. Price from Skoosh was unbelievably cheap, paid more for it two years ago. Didn't use restaurant or bar, but have eaten here before and it was fine. Lack of traffic and stunning views of Thames and St Katharine's Dock means it is restful if you find the hustle of London a bit too much. Only thing that would improve this hotel for me would be a swimming pool which is why I can't give it a 5. Thank you Skoosh for this amazing deal - I stay in London every week so I know what hotel prices are like and the quality that should be there. Skoosh and The Tower have been the best buy in my three years of travelling.

25/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

Great location, but rooms only average. Reception and restaurant areas appear understaffed - expect to wait for whatever service you need.

25/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

The Thistle Hotel in London was amazing! Booking it through Skoosh, I saved quite a bit of money, which allowed for more shopping while on holiday! The hotel is spotless, the staff extremely helpful. I felt like part of the family by the time I stayed and I would definitely recommend this hotel. The location is great, a 3 minute walk to the Tower of London, walk across the Tower Bridge to Butlers Wharf, (incredible restaurants) and the concierge staff, wow, they know what they are doing! The Tower Hotel has music in Xi Bar every night and they really cater to all your needs there. I am looking into another trip in August. Go Skoosh!!

25/06/2011 12:00:00 AM

we had to change rooms - we were on the 5th floor which is obviously reserved for stag parties etc. Having switched to the 8th floor we were very impressed with fittings and decor. Gym OK a little small. Interior plush throughout. With our stay above exception. Exterior - Moscow meets the Thames. Definitely in need of a lick of paint. Food... breakfast only - v good. Generally v happy with our stay.
